THE CONSOLIDATED GENEALOGIES OF THE RALPH SMITH FAMILY

by Ralph S. Blois

This book is a family history document freely given to historians and ancestors of Ralph Smith. It is not copyrighted for that reason. When I spoke to the author Ralph S. Blois it was his wish that I distribute and or copied this book as there are only a few hard copies ever made at that time. It was his gift to all Ralph Smith descendents, and I have digitized it and put it on the Association of Descendents of Ralph Smith of Hingham and Eastham Massachusetts website. I wish to add a very special thank you to Ralph S. Blois for his contribution to our family history.

THE CONSOLIDATED GENEALOGIES OF THE RALPH SMITH FAMILY

by Ralph S. Blois

CS7/ S643 1992 fol.

My Grandparents: William Emory Crowell Smith #3880 and Mary Jane (Locke)

YOUR NAME.....

You got it from your father,
It was all he had to give.
So, it's yours to use and cherish,
For as long as you may live.
If you lose the watch he gave you,
It can always be replaced,
But, a black mark on your name, son.
Can never be erased.
It was clean the day you took it
And a worthy name to bear,
When he got it from his father,
There was no dishonor there.
So, make sure you guard it wisely,
After all is said and done,
You'll be glad the name is spotless,
When you give it to your son.

...... Robert Louis Stevenson

INTRODUCTION

In researching my mother's ancestry I discovered a wealth of information on my early ancestor, Ralph Smyth of Hingham, England. Information about him appears in many books (see list on page 1). There is even an organization devoted to his genealogy (Association of Descendants of Ralph Smith of Hingham and Eastham, Massachusetts). Some of the information in the various books is not consistent and not all information appears in any one book (until now). So, I fed this mass of info into my computer and have consolidated all available (to me) sources into the single large volume you now hold in your hands.

I have tried to resolve some of the conflicts. Some inconsistencies could not be resolved and so I have presented both sides - you can dig for more info if you wish.

During consolidation of these works, this book has undergone three versions. The first version consisted of 272 pages with only 6615 names. Only 5 copies were produced and sent to researchers whom I felt could use the information and also be of some help in generating responses from them that could add to this work. It contained many errors. These were corrected in the 2nd version of which only one copy exists. This third version is the first one to be distributed to the general public and to be placed in various genealogical libraries throughout the USA and Canada (including the LOS Library, Salt Lake City, UT and the Public Archives of Nova Scotia, Halifax, NS, plus others).

When my wife, Nina, and I, started consolidating the genealogies of Ralph Smith, and adding our own research, we had only a few hundred names. As we approached number 15,000 the incoming information began to dwindle and I decided to close off the project after the birth of our newest granddaughter in July 1992. However, genealogy projects are never ending and we may yet accumulate more information - if so it will have to be published as a supplement or another volume. If you spot any errors or ommissions - please write and tell me so that such information can be corrected in the next edition and distributed for future researchers to find - it does no good hand written in your copy of this book - let the rest of the world know.

There are several factors involved that prevent this book from being "printed". Facilities and costs. There is very little sale for books of this type - pnly to family members. A few dozen copies at most - if one is really lucky - perhaps a hundred. The cost to professionally publish such a book is in the thousands of dollars - with no chance at all of recouping all but a very small portion of the cost. Since I am retired and not independently wealthy, I simply do not have the funds to start such a venture. My only resources are those which I possess - left over from a small business I had. I am forced to produce the work on my own office copying machine from type generated by my home computer. I have no adequate way for binding this material. About 140 pages is the maximum that I can staple in one batch. Since this work is much larger than that, we have multiple sections stapled separately but bound together in one volume - all done by hand.

This book is not prepared in generation sequence as is the case with so many published genealogies. It is given in numerical sequence with an unique number allotted to each specific individual. Consult the index to find your number and then work forward or backwards from there by using the "parent" or "children" numbers shown in your listing. For those who "must" have a generation sequence - see the Contents page, there is such a list at the end of this book.

If you are curious about the author of this work, I am Ralph S. Blois and you will find me listed as #3991.

SPELLING of NAMES

In searching the index for a name - do not be too concerned over spelling. If it is not listed one way - think of a different spelling and try that. Formal spelling was not invented until the 18th century. Prior to that time, people spelled words in whatever way seemed right to them, or in the way in which they heard the name pronounced as influenced by various dialects. In various documents my own ancestor Abraham had his surname spelled as Blois, Blouse and Bloyce. Spelling a name in the same way every time was considered a mark of the uneducated and one man of the times was quite proud of the fact that he could spell his surname in five ways. Ralph Smith, who founded this entire family spelled his surname as Smyth.

Names in this book are spelled just as I found them. I hope this doesn't create confusion. Some were spelled in two ways — for example: Bell and Bull, Newell and Newhall. Others I suspect are simply mispellings such as Pamelia for Pamella and Newetten for Newton but, since I don't know for certain — I left them as found. Some I would consider to be "nicknames" but I've been bit on those before — my own father's name is Percy which some consider a nickname for Percival - but his birth certificate shows he was "Percy" not Percival.

LOCATIONS

Many books on genealogy assume that the reader knows where the people in the book lived. Often, town names are given with no clue as to what State, Province, or even country in which it is located. Even more frequently, no reference at all is made to a location thus leaving the reader to wonder if the people lived in the US, Canada or even Siberia.

In the present book we have included as much information as we could find on locations. We have tried hard not to guess. In many cases, the location would appear obvious. Where parents were born, lived and died, it seems likely the children were also born there. Such is not always true. Children can be born away from home, and a "guess" as to location thus could prove wrong if based on where the parents lived. In one particular case, we know of a child who was born in a foreign country - not the residence of note of the parents. However, for your own purposes, you may wish to make some assumptions based on parental locations - and, in most cases you would be correct.

DATES

Three centuries or so ago, many countries changed from the Julian to Gregorian calendars. New Year's day used to be in late March and when it was moved to January 1st it created a problem. Some records used Julian and some Gregorian dates. Suppose your birthday was Jan. 31, 1704 Gregorian - that would be 1703 Julian because the year 1703 wasn't officially over until late March. This is why you will see old records written thus: 31 Jan 1703/04. Where I have found such records I have ignored the Julian dating, since we use the Gregorian exclusively today - thus you will find only 31 Jan 1704 in this book. When there is some doubt as to the date, I have included all dates mentioned - thus a person may be shown as born on two seperate dates - I wouldn't know which date was correct.

ACCURACY

How accurate is this book? That is a difficult question. We can say that it is more accurate than the books listed as "sources" on page 1, because we have gone through them and made necessary corrections. Much of the new information which we have added (many thousand names) is only as accurate as the source from which we obtained that information.

Most professional genealogists consider original documents as most accurate while talk from family members is considered as hearsay. They accept a birth certificate in favor of the word of the parents. In one case I discovered that the parents had made a mistake when they registered the birth but didn't bother to correct it. After all, they considered that they knew the truth and only the government wanted the birth certificate - and who cared what the government believed! I have found errors in tombstones that contradict dates given in obituaries, such as a death reported in a newspaper a full year before the death date on the stone. My point here is that so-called solid documentation may not be accurate at all. In all fairness - such documentation is probably correct in most cases. But, keep an open mind - it can be in error.

So, how accurate is this book? It is as accurate as our sources - most of which we have no way of checking.

WHAT IS GENEALOGICAL PROOF?

If you want to "prove" something, just type it on a piece of paper. If you "say it" people may doubt you but, if it is on a piece of paper very few will question it. Absurd, isn't it? In the mid-1960's I taught a night school course in General Semantics. A part of the course consisted of examples of falsification in history. One student was very surprised—she thought that whatever appeared in history books was the absolute truth. Take for example, who "won" the War of 1812. The answer depends on whether you read an American or Canadian history text. History is "always" written from a biased viewpoint thus making it very difficult to find out what "really" happened.

In the legal system, the statements of "experts" is considered proof. Yet, experts have been known to be wrong. Some genealogical societies demand absolute "documentary" proof of ancestry. They refuse to accept sworn statements by individuals as to their own legal marriage and children yet would accept that same information if found printed in a book such as the one you are now reading. Yet, much of the data in such books did in fact come from statements from individuals.

Are there any records that cannot be questioned? I know of none. Town and Church records can be in error because the information in them comes from individuals – the same individuals whose statements would not be accepted if given other than to a town or church. It's not "who" gives the statement, it's who the statement is given to. How about tombstones? Well, one lady in NY was four years senior to her husband but didn't want people to know. She falsified his tombstone to move back his birth by four years. What shet didn't realize was she had moved his birth back two years prior to his parents marriage.

In this present book, we could not possibly look up the vital records for every single one of the over 14,000 names that appear herein. When we found errors we corrected them and when there is a conflict by family members we have accepted information from the person closest to the source.

ABOUT THE LIST

This book is not organized to show "generations". Many books show Generation #1, then #2, etc. but - what happens should we discover an ancestor prior to our first person? If Samuel Smith (son of Ralph Smyth) is the first generation and we later find the father of Ralph (thus making him the first generation - then what happens to Samuel (he becomes 2nd gen. of course - but by then the entire generation numbering scheme is out of phase). If you really want a generation sequence see the section just before the index for the first five generations.

Most generation oriented histories begin with the earliest known ancestor (this book does also) and his/her children. Then, a separate chapter is devoted to each child in the first generation by listing his/her children followed by second generation children, and so forth to form an ancestral "tree". This traditional format presents two problems:

(1) it is difficult to find any one specific individual even though you may already know

Something about that person - it becomes even harder when you know nothing about that person since most such books do not include an index - or at best a very sketchy "contents" page.

(2) there is a lot of repetition since the information on the parent is given first as the child of his/her parent and repeated several pages later when his/her children are listed. If cousins marry the information on their children, grandchildren, etc. is repeated under each of the two lines of the family. This is not so important in a small book - but becomes serious with larger books. A book with 5000 names listed may have half, or more, of those names repeated. If there are 50 lines per page - repetition of 2500 names would add 50 pages to the book - just for repetition. Consider how much it would add to the present book which consists of over 14,600 names.

HOW TO USE THE LIST

This book contains a comprehensive index. If you know the name of an ancestor - find them in the index. If you cannot find one name - try another, or perhaps a different spelling of the name. Some folks use their second name (e.g. John Henry may be called Henry not John), others have double names (e.g. Mary Jane is not called Mary nor Jane - but Mary-Jane). The actual name a person used was known to those around them but is not known to future generations nor to those of us doing research. Because we do not know the persons "familiar" name, we use the first name. Thus, while you may know your ancestor as "Henry", you may find him listed in the index as "John" (using the previous example).

Once you have located the person's name, the index gives that person's number. Since the list is presented in numerical sequence it becomes easy for you to locate that specific person. Against that number you will find all of the information we were able to find on that specific ancestor. You will find important dates, occupations, locations where they lived, etc. You will also find other sets of numbers for "Parent" and "Children" included with the listing for your ancestor. Take the "Parent" number and look it up and you will find information on that person's father and mother - look up their "Parent" number and you have information on the grandparents of the first person you looked up. Keep tracing backward through each "Parent" number and you will end up with $1 Ralph Smith. The same logic applies to the "Children" numbers going in the opposite chronological sequence to children, grandchildren, etc.

As far as possible we have tried to allot numbers in numerical order so that families will be grouped together. In fact we spent over 3 months and many, many hours, doing nothing but resorting the first 4000 names to put everyone in sequence. Then, we discovered many additional names and these were added at the end of the list. It is not an easy job renumbering so, unfortunately, these added names are not in family groupings. In fact this is the most commonly asked question from those using this book, "Why is my number so different from my siblings?" The answer is because we found you before we knew you had any siblings. Inbetween you and your siblings, we found many people in different families and allotted them the numbers that you feel should have gone to your siblings. When we finally found your siblings, the numbers left to use were way out of sequence.

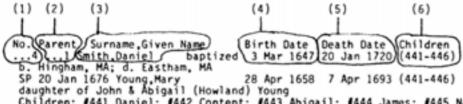

Here is a sample number showing the format we have used. Once you get familiar with this format - finding family groups becomes easy.

(1) (2) (3) (4) (5) (6)

No. Parent Surname, Given Name Birth Date Death Date Children

Ralph Smith Family

Note that the column headings shown above are not shown on every page (to save space) so you will need to imagine they are there. Here is an example:

FIRST LINE:

(1) - that person's own specific number. This identifies that person - nobody else has that number. The number has no other significance - it number is for that person and no other.

(2) - the specific number for that person's parent. The number has no other significance - it tells you absolutely nothing except that

(3) - the person's name - surname is given first.
(4) - the person's birth date - or baptism or christening date when birth is not known. indicated by "bap" or "chr".

(5) - the person's death date when known.

(6) - the specific numbers allotted to that person's children are enclosed in brackets ( ). When the individual had more than one spouse, the children are shown against the spouse when known.

SUCCEEDING LINES:

More information is given when known, in the following sequence.

The location of the person's birth, death and marriage.

A biographical sketch of the person, occupation, etc.

Information on the spouse (SP): wedding date, surname, given names, birth date, death date, () children.

Spouses biography or other information.

Lastly, the given names of the children and their numbers.

We have shown the parents of the spouse when known but not repeated the surname. For example: MacDonald Celia dau. of Archibald & Sarah (Ross). There is no need to print Archibald MacDonald since it is obvious his surname is MacDonald and the child (Celia) takes the surname of the father not the mother. The mother's surname is shown in brackets (Ross).

OTHER IMPORTANT NOTES

In tracking children, you may find a parent# not the one you expected. Chances are this is an inter-family marriage and both parents have #'s in this book. The computer format only allows me to use one number - so, go to the parent# shown and you will find the # of the spouse.

Re: names. In some cases there is no room on a line to type the full name of the person. So, I use initials. On the next line you will see the initials explained. When the parents of a spouse are known you will read a statement such as, "dau. of John & Sarah (Bish)". This is not John "Bish" - it is the maiden name of the spouse. I do not include the father's surname since it takes up too much space. It is obvious what that surname should be - it is the same surname as the unmarried daughter or son.

In a book of this size I needed to conserve space. The column headings for the list do not appear on every page - they only appear once at the start of the list. The col. head takes up one line plus one blank line - that's 800 lines for 400 pages - at 73 lines per page that is an extra 11 pages. A separate line just for birth location also takes up space. When a group of people were all born in the same place I have included a NOTE stating this at the start of the group. If you find no b. place shown against the person you are seeking - look back to previous numbers - you may find such a note. Yes, listing the names of children takes up space - these lines could have been deleted but I thought them of value - it saves looking up each number to find the names of children. Note that space only allows one name to be used for each child and it may not be the name with which you are familiar - I have used the first given name in each case. Further, to conserve space I do not include a space between surname and given name (just a comma) and when names are too long they tend to run into dates. Space is the reason for not using "correct" grammar, punctuation and spelling.

***** .... WARNING

If you have not fully read this introduction - please do so before consulting the list. This book is NOT organized in the manner of other family histories.

To conserve space, many abbreviations are used in this book. They are listed here. I know how disturbing abbreviations can become when you have no idea what they mean. Apparently many authors feel an abbreviation is so well known (to them) that there is no need for an explanation. But, years later, a new person reading the material does not have the previous author's experience, background or chronology (times change) and may never have heard of the "common" abbreviation.

COUNTY of NORFOLK, ENGLAND

Family historians for Ralph Smith are unanimous in attributing his birth place to Hingham, Norfolk, England in 1610. This may, or may not, be correct. No information is given on his parents.

There is no physical evidence to support Hingham. England as his birthplace - it all comes from supposition. We suspect these suppositions may be correct but are not proven. See further comments on page 8.

What was the County of Norfolk like? Prior to the 12th century, the County was isolated on the mid-eastern shore and thus separated from greater England by a river barrier. In the 12th and 13th centuries small market towns sprouted in England and spread into Norfolk. They were scattered every 8 or 10 miles apart. The largest town in Norfolk was Norwich. Hingham was located about 10 miles or so west of Norwich. Being so close, Hingham was much affected by Norwich. In 1334, Norwich was the 6th richest town in all of England with a population of 6,000. Farming was the main occupation. It featured a daily open air market that is still the largest such in England to this day.

By 1400, Norwich was the center of the wool-worsted manufacturing industry. At the start of the 16th century, Norwich was the leading commercial center in all England. By 1550 wool was in decline and replaced by the Dutch drapery industry. In 1590, landless day laborers earned 6 pence a day in winter and 7 pence a day in summer (that rose to 10 pence and a shilling by 1650). There was a large market place in Hingham at the time.

One mile S.E. of the Parish of Hingham is Samere Lake, about 20 acres in size. It is fed by springs and rich in pike, eels and other fish. The Parish church was rebuilt in 1316 and has been added to since then so that today (late 20th century) it accommodates 800 persons. The ancestors of Ralph Smyth were people of the soil and very religious. In the half century prior to the birth of Ralph Smyth, there was considerable religious turmoil in Hingham and surrounding towns. The Puritan movement was growing strong.

In 1605, Robert Peck was rector of the Hingham Parish Church and, being of a violent schismatical spirit, he pulled down the rails, levelled the altar, and sunk the whole chancel a foot below the nave. He, "catechized his family and sung a hymn in his own house on a Lord's day evening when some of his neighbours attended." For that, he was persecuted by Bishop Wren. What persecution is not specified but British historians record that Peck took 35 families with him and fled England for America to found the colony of Hingham, Mass. This is an error. Peck promised never to desert those who came with him but, hearing that the Bishops were deposed in England, he left his flock to shift for themselves and returned to England in 1646.

According to Hingham, MA records, Peck arrived there in 1638 aboard the ship Diligent from Ipswich, England whereas the "founders" of Hingham, MA arrived in 1633 on board the ship Elizabeth Bonaventure. Peck was made a Teacher of the church in Nov. 1638. He returned to England in 1641 where he died in 1658.

Throughout England this was a period of religious turmoil and many people left England for America. The largest exodus was from London. The second largest was from Hingham, Norfolk. At the time, Hingham had a population of only a few hundred.

SOURCES for Hingham, MA

See Sources on page 1 - many include bits of information about Hingham, MA. HINGHAM, MA

What do we know about Ralph Smith in America? Most of our knowledge comes from the books listed on page 1, with some added information from those listed as "Sources" on page 7.

Early Mysteries

According to Solomon Lincoln, historian of Hingham, MA, the town was founded in Sept. 1633 by five men: Ralph Smith; Nicholas Jacobs; Thomas Lincoln; Edmond Hobart; and Thomas Hobart the brother of Edmond. In 1633 the town was called Bare Cove and renamed Hingham shortly thereafter. Mr. Lincoln wrote in 1827 from records available at that time.

Where did Mr. Lincoln get his information? He writes: "Among the papers of Mr. Cushing, there is a list of the names of such persons as came out of the town of Hingham, and towns adjacent, in the County of Norfolk, in the Kingdom of England, into New England, and settled in Hingham." From this list of names, Lincoln concludes there were people in Hingham, MA as early as 1633 - including the five mentioned above.

Please note that Mr. Lincoln does NOT say that these five "founded" Hingham, MA. It is the Ralph Smith family historians who make that claim.

The founders arrived in America on the ship Elizabeth Bonaventure. No passenger list has been found for this ship (1633 voyage) so this cannot be confirmed. Historian, C E Banks in "The Planters of the Commonwealth" states: "The following emigrants from Hingham, Norfolk, who arrived this year probably came in this ship." Note the word "probably". Banks lists 25 people - there were 95 aboard the ship.

Ralph Smith historians repeat the story that the first church in Hingham. MA was formed by Rev. Peter Hobart of Hingham, England, in Sept. 1635. According to the record, this appears to be true. Peter is one of the twin sons of Edmond Hobart (in Hingham, MA in 1633). Peter arrived in America in 1635 after six years as a Minister in England.

The records kept by the Massachusetts Historical Society show that the Hingham Congregational Church was gathered on 18 Sep 1635 with first Pastor being Peter Hobart (he d. 1678/79) The second teacher (not pastor) was Robert Peck in 1638 and removed in 1641 (d. 1656). So, according to the official record, we have both Peter Hobart and Robert Peck accounted for.

Ralph Smith in Hingham, MA

The Elizabeth Bonaventure with John Graves as Master, left Yarmouth, Norfolk, England the 1st week of May, 1633 and arrived at Boston, America on June 15, 1633 with 95 passengers amongst whom are "assumed" to have been the following from Hingham, Norfolk:

Edmond & Elizabeth Hobart and children: Nazareth, Edmond, Thomas, Joshua, Rebecca & Sarah. Henry Gibbs. Ralph Smith.

Nicholas & Mary Jacon and children: John & Mary.

Although not mentioned by Mr. Banks in his passenger list, it may be assumed that this also included Thomas Lincoln and Thomas Hobart the brother of Edmond.

Hingham was first called Bare Cove. It was in Sept. 2nd, 1635 that the Governor changed the name officially to Hingham. The exact number of settlers in 1633 is not known. In 1635 this increased by grants of land to 50 persons and in 1638 another 133 persons arrived in Hingham off the ship "Diligent". Most of these were of English Puritan stock.

Hingham, MA records show the existence of two different people named Ralph Smith. Did both of them arrive on the Elizabeth Bonaventure? According to the record kept at the time by Daniel Cushing, a Ralph Smith "came from old Hingham 1633" and lived in this town (Hingham, MA)". In 1640, Rev. Peter Hobart records, "Feb. 15 Ralph Smith buried". In 1637 a Ralph Smith drew a lot of land on "batchelor Row". Between 1652 and 1654 he removed to Eastham, MA. Four of his children are baptized in Hingham, MA.

We have then, two people named Ralph Smith, one born in Hingham. England, the other unknown birth place. There is no way at this late date to separate the records to know for certain which was which. Our Ralph Smith may have been born in England or not - we can't tell for certain. Certainly our Ralph was not the one who died in 1640. We will never know for certain.

The area had been used previously by Indians and much of the land was cleared. Jesse Smith (1909) writes, "The soil of Hingham is fair and in many places rich, and its successful cultivation led to the rapid increase in the number and area of the 'planting fields' which were granted from time to time. The almost circular harbor, surrounded and protected on all sides by hills clothed with a growth of oak, pine and cedar, and guarded at its entrance by three beautiful islands, which, like faithful sentinels, stood for protection against the storms, called attention to Hingham as an advantageous point for the construction of craft of various description and size, and the development of a prosperous foreign trade. Shippards and wharves soon dotted the shore and multiplied with astonishing rapidity; and many a stately vessel received her baptism and commenced her perilous career in the little bay. The commerce which was subsequently one of the chief sources of local wealth began almost with the birth of the town.

The Canadian Smith Families

Many of the Smith family historians live in Canada and much information has been provided on that line of the family. Stephen Smith (#27) & family were first to go to Canada in 1760 and settled in Liverpool & Cape Sable Island. NS. He was followed in 1762 by Josiah Snow #5060 & family and David Smith #3813 in 1763. The land on which they settled had previously been used by Indians and then French settlers. Nova Scotia is rife with natural beauty and wooded terrain. It was ideal for fishing and hunting with a rugged coastline. Most of the inhabitants were farmers, fishermen and seafarers.

One of the later immigrants was Captain David Smith (#1014) - he came to Guysborough, NS in 1784. Then to Port Hood Island in Cape Breton, NS in 1786. Perley W Smith gives a good account of the early days in his book "The Smiths of Cape Breton".

Now, let us begin our Smith genealogy with Ralph Smyth from Hingham, Norfolk, England.

b. Hingham, Norfolk, Eng.; d. Eastham, MA
Thought to have sailed from Yarmouth, Norfolk, Eng. first week in May 1633 aboard the Elizabeth Bonaventure, arrived Boston, No. America on 15 June 1633. (See pages 7 & 8 for controversy.) He settled about 12 miles south of Boston in Bare Cove (renamed in 1635 to Controversy.) He settled about 12 miles south of Boston in Bare Cove (renamed in 1635 to Hingham) in Sept. 1633 and is claimed to be one of five founders of the town named after his birthplace in England. The other four were: Nicholas Jacobs and family; Thomas Lincoln, a weaver; Edmond Hobart and his brother Thomas Hobart. A son of Edmond, the Rev. Peter Hobart came from England in 1635 and founded the first church in Hingham in 1635. Ralph spelled his name as Smyth (his sons changed it to Smith). In 1637 he drew a house-lot on "Batchelor Row" (now Main St.). Some claim that he first married in 1638. He then moved to Eastham, MA between South 1652 and March 1654. MA between Sept. 1652 and March 1654. It is said he had erected a store in Hingham and left it in charge of Josias Hobart when he went to Eastham, where he continued to trade with Josias. He is listed as a "legal voter" in Eastham 22 May 1655, took the "oath of fidelity" 25 Oct. 1657 and became town Constable in 1660. He performed the duties of peace officer and tax collector.

About his wife/wives there is some dispute. Some early family historians claim his first wife was either Elizabeth or Rebecca Hobart and the second wife was the widow Mrs. Grace Hatch. The only evidence available today (1992) is this statement found in Vol.6 folio 175, Plymouth Colony Records from a court order: "Administration is granted by this court to Grace Smith, the relict (i.e. widow) of Ralph Smith, and Samuell Smith, son of the sd Ralph Smith, all of the town of Eastham, in the colony of New Plymouth, in New England, deceased, on all the goods and chattells of sd Ralph Smith." No other reference can be found re: a wife to Ralph Smith. Early genealogists may have had access to records no longer available or the information may have come down thru generations as a "family story". SP#1 1638 Hobart, Rebecca (possible) 1598/1612 Bfr. 1660 (2-7) b. Hingham, England; m. Hingham, MA; d. Eastham, MA; considered to be a daughter of Edmund Hobart & Margaret (Dewey). Some researchers question this. In 1913 "Ralph Smyth and His Descendants" by Dr. Dwight Smith states that Ralph m. Rebecca Hobart. (Some researchers give her name as Elizabeth.) Author Clarence Almon Torry published a book in 1923 "John Young of Eastham" with detailed information on Edmund Hobart and did not find either a daughter Elizabeth or Rebecca. Hobart's Genealogy by L Smith Hobart (1886) does list a child Rebecca as b. 1598. Banks in his book (see page 7) lists Rebecca, dau. of Edmond Hobart as a passenger on the Elizabeth Bonaventure. The evidence supports the existence of Rebecca as opposed to Elizabeth. I question her b. date - was it 1598 or 1612? I prefer 1612. In any case, all of the children recorded are said to be from this marriage. No evidence exists to support two wives or that Grace was the widow Mrs Hatch. These claims simply taken from accounts made by early genealogists.

SP#2 m. abt.1660 Hatch,Grace (widow of Thomas Hatch)

As stated above, there is no solid evidence to suppose she was the widow Hatch. The only certainty is that Ralph Smith married a woman named Grace and that his children Samuel, John, Daniel and Elizabeth were baptized in Hingham, MA. Children: #2 Samuel: #3 John; #4 Daniel; #5 Elizabeth; #6 Thomas; #7 Deborah.

Children: #15 Samuel; #16 Joseph; #8558 Zoheth; #8559 Richard; #8560 Elizabeth; #8561 Ruth. NOTE: the generally accepted genealogy of Samuel Smith only includes 2 children (#15 & #16). The Mayflower Families (pg. 339) refers to the Will of Samuel #15 in which he mentions other names as his siblings; "to Joshua Mayo Smith, son of my late Bro. Zoheth Smith," "to Hannah Sears Smith, daughter of my late Bro. Richard Smith," "to Samuel &.and Elizabeth Arey, children of my late sister Elizabeth Arey," "to Hannah Greene, the daughter of my only sister Ruth Greene, wife of Joseph Greene." Ruth could hardly be his (Samuel #15) "only" sister if he also had a sister Elizabeth. Unless her name is Ruth Elizabeth. If the d. date given is correct then in 2 yrs. of m. Samuel #9 would not have time for so many children (even multiple births). There is an error here someplace. The possibilities include: the death date of 1692 is in error; spouse Bathsheba Lathrop married a second Mr. Smith after Samuel #9 died; there is a recording error in the Will. You decide. Children #8558 thru 8561 may or may not descend from Samuel.

NOTE: some other Smith genealogists to whom I have written tend to dismiss this entire Will Children: #15 Samuel: #16 Joseph: #8558 Zoheth: #8559 Richard: #8560 Elizabeth: #8561 Ruth.
NOTE: some other Smith genealogists to whom I have written tend to dismiss this entire Will with a shrug of the shoulders - sort of "I can't explain it - so I'll ignore it and not mention it - maybe it will go away." Personally, I cannot ignore facts of any kind. He DID make the Will and he DID mention those other siblings - I MUST take them into account:

b. Chatham, MA; m. Chatham, MA; d. Cape Sable Isl., Barrington, NS; in 1828 he had 9 children, 97 gr.ch., 219 gr.gr.ch. and 34 gr.gr.gr.children. In 1760 Archelaus moved from MA to Barrington, NS, one of the first two families to arrive.
Having come ahead, he soon sent for his family. Hearing stories of Indians, he then sent a message for them not to come. As he was leaving in the West passage, his wife and four children were arriving in the East passage aboard the ship of Capt. Eldad Nickerson. Some fishermen came to the aid of the stranded family, built a log house and gave her as much provisions as they could. She and children stayed the winter as Archelaus was unable to return. Indians helped some. She frightened off bears with flaming fire brands. He was a fisherman, tanner, shoemaker, surveyor, magistrate and officiated at meetings and burials in absence of clergy. They moved from Barrington to Centreville, Cape Island, NS. He was a tall man, his wife was tall and muscular. Aunt "Nabby", Uncle "Kiah's" wife, at times would take her children and row down the passage on ebb tide to Barrington and return on the flood tide.

T B Smith #7760 (see) wrote much interesting information on this Lodowick, here is an
(The following notes are taken from a record kept by a Mr Perkins, Marshall of the Provincial Court of the Admiralty, at the time when Lodowick lived.)
"March 4, 1780: Mr. Lodowick Smith comes to me with a letter ... & desires a letter from me to the Secretary & to me friends in Halifax, concerning their prize (the people of Port Medway had captured the Schooner Dolphin as a prize of war) ... it was reported that two prizes were going into Halifax.
 "Oct. 9, 1781: Lodowick Smith is arrived from HAlifax."
"Nov. 8, 1781: Mr. Samuel Mack, some days ago, also ransomed his cargo of lumber on board Lodowick Smith, for 30 or L35."
"May 17, 1782: Mr Jones arrives from Halifax. He was in LeHave, and all the other shallops (a 2 masted ship used in coastal waters only), Parker & Smith were chased into Petit Riviere."
"May 18, 1782: Capt. Bradford & seven more go in the Shaving Mill (a ship) in quest of the shallops."
 "May 19, 1782: The Shaving mill returns, having been to Petit Riviere, where they found Parker & Lodowick Smith coming out, who were frightened and put back. They went to them & took Mr. Parker in tow. Mr. Smith being much affronted they left him."

"June 27, 1782: Capt. Bradford's people were brought to by a Privateer Shaving mill. They see a schooner & two shallops go by to the westward. ... Mr. Aurenburg was taken in one of them & put on board Lodowick Smith & sent into Portmetway (Port Medway). They took some flour, etc. from Smith."

"Oct. 6,1782: The party that went with Mr. Callahan & most of the party that went with Capt. Hopkins, return from Portmetway by land. They have captured John Leonard Hammon, the sailing master of the Privateer schooner Race Horse, Storer Commander, who they captured at Lodowick Smith's house. They complain of William Cahoon, junr., for misdemeanors & took him prisoner. The people in general did not use them with civility. Mrs. Smith secreted the Privateersman & denied that he was in the house. The woman also secreted my orders that I gave Mr. Callahan & by some means took copys of them & threatened to set up as many of them on the Trees as there is 'Irishmen in Newfoundland'."
 "Oct. 15, 1784; It is very sickly at Portmetway. Some children have died & Lodowick Smith's wife is very sick."
 "Nov. 22, 1784: I hear that my shallop is on shore at Portmetway & that Lodowick Smith is arrived from Boston."
"Sept. 4, 1786: Take in some fish from Lodowick Smith."
"Nov. 3, 1787: This evening Lodowick Smith & Ephraim Hunt call on me & acquaint me that one Matthew Mallace, a shoemaker that works with Mr Park at Port Metway, this day made violent resistance against Mr. Hunt, when he attempted to take him by a Capias, for his fine of the highways, by standing with a shoe knife in his hand, and that he threatened to cut Lodowick Smith's head off with the knife, and has threatened him, as he understands, several times. He therefore made oath that he is in fear that the Sd Matthew Mallace will take his life, or the head of the head of do him bodily harm, or burn his house, on which I issued a warrant to apprehend him."
"Nov. 4. 1787: Mr. Tinkham, Mr. MacAlpine & several others go to Port Metway to take said Wallace. They return at evening, report that the man Wallace has absconded, and is gone toward Petit River. They have taken an other man, who carried Wallace over the water & the same that Smith & Hunt says carried a sword, or cutlash, to him on Saturday."
"Apl 5, 1788: I agree to let Lodowick Smith have 3 hds salt at ye rate of 1/2 quintal to equal fish."
"Nov. 24, 1789: I am informed by Peter West that news is come from Port Metway that Mr. Lodowick Smith has been missing since last Sunday week. He went for LeHave alone in his boat. They have heard from LeHave & no news of him.

When she was age 10 (1822) she planted an acorn in front of her home (Milton, NS) and the tree was still there in 1945. (It may still be there in 1992 for all I know.)

T B Smith #7760 wrote: "perhaps as a childish memorial to that brave young father she would never see again, she planted the acorn. And she saw it take root and watched it grow. It is growing still, a fine old monarch by the roadside; and a few days ago one of Mary Smith's descendants, Mr. Lemuel S. Freeman of Dartmouth, himself a seafaring man for many years in foreign waters, in war and in peace, placed a memorial plaque on the tree. The plaque was cast from a mold designed and made by A M McMillan, the well known wood-carver, and this is the inscription:
'This tree grew from an acorn planted in 1822 by Mary Letitia Smith. She was a direct descendant of Elder Brewster, a leader of the Pilgrim Fathers, who landed in Plymouth, Mass in 1620. WOODMAN SPARE THAT TREE.'

MARNING - this information cannot be true. William #226 b. 1824 could not possibly be born 2 years before his father Parker #222 b. 1826 yet our source says William is the son of Parker. There is an error here - I do not know what. It could be that William is the "brother" not "son" of Parker???

b. Cape St. Charles, Labrador; d. Boston, MA; his daughter Grace #4371 tells these stories of him: left home at age 15 to become first mate on a fishing schooner off Newfoundland in summer. Fur trapper in Labrador in winter with a team of 9 Huskies. In a hunting accident he killed his brother Israel.
He was a lumberjack in the Canadian woods. An Indian visited the camp for a meal. He saw a jar and asked what it was. Jesse said, "Mustard, try some." The Indian spread some on his meat, tasted and spit it out. "Moose turd be damned, more like Devil shittum."

Got married and lived in NFLD. He worked for a dredging company. He built their own cabin. All of the family were musical, Jesse played accordian, spouse played piano (they "always" had a piano), the children played violin and sang.
During WWI Jesse worked on captured German ships.
During WMI Jesse worked on captured German ships.

Moved to Hingham, MA in 1923, 2 yrs after wife Nora died. Jesse got a job as a ships carpenter. He fell from the staging, hit the deck and into the water. Broke his leg and was in Boston Hospital for 13 weeks. It didn't heal properly and left him with a limp and constant sores. Daily his daughter Grace #4371 would bathe and wrap the leg. Jesse also had his hand caught in a derrick and it mangled his thumb.

b. & m. Cape Sable Isl., NS; in sea trade w/ West Indies for 40 yrs. Sailed out of Lockeport, NS, Nfld., Barbados, Trinidad, St.Martins, Port of Spain, Haiti & Jamaica. 1877 in Trinidad w/ 100's of barrels of herring. Usually carried coal & lumber to the islands and brought back sugar & molasses. Sailed for 7 yrs. as Owner/Captain of a two-masted schooner "Augusta Smith" named for his wife. In 21 Dec 1883 off PEI coast
w/3600 bushels potatoes & rutabagas going to Boston, MA, they ran into a storm. Snow was so thick they couldn't see. When they saw lights they thought it was Boston Harbour - it wasn't, and they nearly ran aground off PEI. They anchored, sprang a leak in the hull, ditched the cargo and got to shore. Later they freed the ship from the rocks and returned to service.

Ancestral Index gives her parents as Elizabeth (Rogers) & Jonathan Higgins m. 9 Jan 1660, Elizabeth's father was Joseph Rogers m. Hannah --, and Joseph's father was Thomas Rogers m. Elsgen --. Thomas Rogers arrived at Plymouth, NH aboard the Mayflower on 10 Nov 1620. (2) L Bertrand Smith in his book on Jesse Smith (pub. 1909) gives this genealogy: Sarah's parents - Benjamin Higgins & Sarah Freeman and her (Sarah Freeman) father was Lt. Edmond Freeman who was the son of Major John Freeman and Mercy Prence - Mercy was the day. of Gov.
Thomas Prence & Patience Brewster - Patience was dau. of Elder William Brewster who arrived on the Mayflower. Which is correct? I have no idea. Both lead back to the Mayflower. Children: #595 Ruth; #596 David: #597 Isaac; #598 Priscilla: #599 Elisha: #600 Sarah; #601 Eunice: #602 Jerusha: #603 Jesse: #604 Elijah: #605 Lydia: #606 Elizabeth.

b. probably Truro, MA; d. Port Hood, NS; came to Guysborough, NS with family of 5 sons in 1784, probably from Mass., and purchased a lot from Joseph Hadley for a wharf & business site. In 1786 made his home in Juste au Corps, Port Hood Island, NS. The house was isolated with no roads and long, hard winters. No other families lived in the area. David and 2 sons went seal hunting on the drifted ice on 19 Feb. 1789. An ice flow parted and they drifted from shore. David tried to cross the flows to shore but failing this he started to swim to their small boat. The weight of the water and the cold were too much for him - he was unable to get out of the water. The 2 boys watched as their father drowned. The next day, cold and hungry, their ice flow drifted near the beach at Mabou, NS and the 2 boys got ashore. With their mother and brothers and no neighbors the small tragic family faced life alone in the wilderness.

         Truro, MA; dau. of Lewis & Sarah; after death of her spouse, she raised her growing family alone under harsh conditions. Water was the only transportation. The nearest merchant was at Arichat, NS. On 25 Aug 1792 she obtained a land grant of 500 acres for herself, sons and daughter. They paid 2 shillings per 100 acres annually at the Feast of St. Michael for use of this land, commencing 2 years after date of the grant. For every 50 acres of plantable land they had to clear 3 acres of land or drain 3 acres of swamp - within 3 years of the grant. They had to raise 3 yeal cattle for every 50 acres of barren land and erect a good dwelling of 20 by 16 feet in floor size. All of this they must have done since the land was not forfeited.

b. Whycocomagh, NS; nickname "Sandy"; an extensive biography exists in a mss entitled "Smith" by Robert L Smith (1979) here is a condensation: Fisherman as a youth. Left home at age 18 with a friend William Breen. Caught a ship at Cape John, NS. Worked to pay passage to Nelson (?). Worked for Essen Bros. in the woods for $8/month. Food was cooked in large pots hung over a fireplace and in a Dutch oven buried in hot coals. No cutlery or plates.
Each man hollowed out a piece of wood for a bowl and ate with knife or wooden spoon.
mean logger, huge and strong, would dip dirty hands into the cooking food and take out choice bits of meat for himself. When Sandy would drive a team with logs out of the woods, this fellow would deliberately cut a log to fall in the path and Sandy would have to remove it. The second time, Sandy warned the mean logger. They fought and Sandy blacked both his eyes. At camp, the logger lied and said that Sandy's buddy Bill Breen had hit him with a club. Sandy heard of it and went to the logger and said let's finish this now. The logger grabbed his bag and left camp forever, muttering he would come back with a knife. He was never seen again.
Late in the winter, Bill Breen took sick and died. Sandy caught the same fever. While sick, the boss charged rent and took back all Sandy had earned. There was no medical care until an old Army Surgeon happened along. He bled Sandy and gave him a strong laxative (jalap). The fever broke and he recovered. No friends, no money and too weak for work. Sandy was rescued by an elderly lady and her son. They fed and housed him until his strength returned. He got work at the McLeod farm with two brothers, Big Dan and Aaron (a wrestler). Each Saturday, Sandy and Aaron wrestled and Sandy lost. By Spring his strength was much improved and he beat Aaron. Big Dan roared with laughter and picked up Sandy like a doll, pleased that his conceited brother had been beaten.
Sandy worked as a blacksmith, in the shipyard and at odd jobs along the NS coast. After he married Susanna Dolhbeck he built a log cabin near Parker's Ridge, NS. He cleared the land and began growing wheat and vegetables. The mss includes several tales in which Sandy gets into fights for various reasons and always wins. One such case involved a horse he had owned being stabbed by a man with a pitchfork - the horse died several days later. In another case. Sandy refused to let a man have some rum. At most times, Sandy was an honest and generous man.

lived with Uncle John #1026 on Port Hood Island, NS, even after marriage; operated a general store and fished; He accepted US currency from American fishermen, this got him in financial trouble during the US Civil War when US currency decreased in value. His customers complained about receiving US currency and they wanted Canadian money. John wanted to make amends and so redeemed the US currency and took a heavy loss.

SP 4 Apr 1839 Ross, Ann 29 Sep 1821 20 Oct 1902 (2660-2668)
   When John died, his widow became involved in a law suit over property ownership. The estate lost in the lower court but won in an appeal with the higher court. The cost of the fight was such that it was said she would have been better off financially if she had lost. Ann was extremely religious and her father was a Methodist Minister. She brought Methodism to Port Hood, NS and insisted that her children attend school. Divine service on Sundays.
and prayer meetings during the week. Gambling, dancing, drinking, card playing, were not allowed in her home. She tried, with much success to influence the community at large to follow her beliefs. It is daid that when she was first married and came to Port Hood, that her father-in-law said he wanted a hot bannock (bread) served for Sunday breakfast.
replied that she would not work on the Sabbath and that what he would get for breakfast would be a reading from the Bible. All cooking and farm chores had to be done on Saturday so that Sunday was free from work.
(Note from Ralph Blois. I just have to insert this comment. On my father's side of the family is a distant Uncle Daniel Blois who lived from 1802 to 1882 in the Gore, Hants County, NS. He was a free spirit and deliberately liked to antagonize religious people by working his blacksmithy on Sundays. He was known as Devil Dan. What an explosion there would have been had Ann and Dan known each other. Neither one would have budged from their position.)

.2383 .1023 Smith, James 1831 1916 (29/2-29/5)

He was known as "Uncle Jim" and spent many cold, winter hours telling stories and tales to his friends about his younger days and the hardships he had suffered. During the Fennian his friends about his younger days and the hardships he had suffered. Mabou for training.
nis friends about his younger days and the hardships he had suffered. During the Fennian Rebellion of 1866, he was called up for military duty and had to walk to Mabou for training. In later years he received a Government grant of $100 for his service. (The Fennians were a group of Irish who wanted the English out of Ireland. They devised a scheme to try and heat up a war between the USA and Canada by staging raids into Canada. The idea being that, if they could start such a war, then the USA would step in and free Ireland. Warped thinking, yes, but that's what they thought.)

SP Fraser, Margaret (of Pictou, NS) 1831 1918 (2972-2975)

She was a midwife for most of the births on Port Hood Island, NS. Known as "Aunt Margaret", her home was the social center for the community and young and old spent many hours at her home.

On 17 Dec., 1876, a terrible storm swept the coast of Port Hood Island, HS. The Maggie H.
under Captain Murdoch MacLennan was stranded on a sand bar and in danger of capsizing. Th blizzard was intense and the air frosty. The Smith's - Joshua #2662, Hezekiah #2663, Richard #2665, Amos #2667 & John #2870 attempted to rescue the crew.
                                                                                                                              The first attempt failed when the rescue boat was nearly filled with water from the high waves, and had to return to shore. Aboard the Maggie H, the crew had lashed their bodies to the rigging to prevent being washed overboard, and were slowly freezing to death. On the second attempt, the Smith's secured a rope to the Maggie H and, when the ship rolled towards the rescue boat, the bodies could be pulled from the rigging into the sea and thence pulled aboard the rescue vessel. They made two trips in order to rescue all of the crew.
  Mr & Mrs Roberts and their 3 children were passengers going from St. John's, NFLD to MY.
Mr & Mrs Roberts and their 3 children were passengers going from St.John's, NFLD to MY. The 3 children, lashed to the main mast were carried away by a wave that swept the ship. Two other men tried to leave the ship in a dory and vanished into the sea. The Roberts' and surviving crew were taken to the home of John #2870, where on of the crew died when exposed to the warmth. Local Doctors performed many amputations of arms and legs. Mrs. Roberts lost both legs - the operation was performed by a specialist from NY. The Robert's moved back to NFLD and had several more children.

The Smith's were honored for their rescue attempt and presented with watches bearing this inscription: "Presented by the Government of Canada to ..... Smith in recognition of his humane and gallant exertion in the rescue of the shipwrecked crew of the Schooner Maggie H., of Port Hawkesbury. 17th December. 1876."
of Port Hawkesbury, 17th December, 1876.*

MMI; a lengthy description of his wartime experiences will be found on pages 121-123 of his book. The Canadian and German troops were intrenches only 100 yards from each other. One morning they were confounded to hear a German soldier yell over to them, "How would you like to be in Winnipeg this morning?" The Canadians replied that they had to go to Berlin first and, after the celebration they'd go to Canada. Later in the war, he was wounded and sent back to a hospital in London Morth (England). He was discharged in Canada on 30 Sept. 1917 and was one of the first soldiers to return to Inverness County, NS. He worked for the Dept. of Fisheries from Jan 1920 to 28 Oct. 1957.

of Canadian Universities 1942-43; Chairman, Canadian Youth Commission 1943; Executive Assistant to the President of the U. of Toronto, ONT and Principal of University College in 1944; President of Toronto U. in 1945.
     Served with the Canadian Expeditionary Force in Europe in WNI: appointed Minister of External Affairs in 1957 and elected to the House of Commons 2 months later. In a campaign speech for re-election in 1958, he promised the people of Port Hood Island. NS that the causeway, under construction for 50 years, would be completed between the island and the mainland. The Public Works of Canada commenced work on the project in July 1958. On March 16, 1959, he delivered a speech in Halifax, NS and caught a plane to his home in Ottawa, ONT - he died the next day without seeing completion of the causeway project.

His wife erected a cairn in memory of her husband on July 22, 1964 at Port Hood, NS. The cairn contains two stones - one taken from Kelleys Mountain overlooking Sydney, NS and the other from Seymour Mountain overlooking Vancouver, BC - to represent the students who attended the University of Toronto from coast to coast.

Boston & Halifax Harbors to bring necessary supplies and news of the war. In 1781 he was stopped by what he thought were friendly French sailors. He produced an old ship's Register as proof that he was American only to discover they were British Privateers and not French. Like most Sea Captain's, he carried both sets of papers to prove either nationality, depending upon who stopped him. He simply produced the wrong set of papers. His schooner was confiscated and sent to Bermuda while he and his crew (except for a young boy) were sent to prison in England. He was released in 1782, returned to Barrington, NS and moved his family to Liverpool, NS. Although David had moved to Mova Scotia to avoid the war, his sentiments were with the people rather than with either political side and he helped many sears later to Portland. MF.

b. Chatham, MA; lived in Bear Point, Port Medway & Sambro, NS; there is an apparent error in the birth date. An 1814 Land Garnt Petition states, "petitioner is 52 yrs old with wife and eleven children..." i.e. 1814 - 52 = 1762. But, he is the child of his fathers 2nd spouse whom father wed in 1764 - 2 yrs after his birth if the land grant is correct.

b. & m. Shelburne, NS; d. Maple Ridge, BC; moved with family to Brocton, MA around 1900.
Her first husband deserted. To support herself and a child, she worked in a shoe factory until her parents returned to NS. She answered an ad for a housekeeper in Alberta, there she met and married her 2nd husband (they returned to Shelburne for the wedding). Lived in Chilliwack, BC, Saltcoats, SASK, Lulu Island, BC, Hayter, ALTA and finally Haney, BC. She was my mother. Until the age of 14, I took her pretty much for granted. She clothed me, sent me to school, soothed my aches and did what I assumed a mother should do. The Xmas of 1940 I was shocked to learn she was a person. That year, Dad & I had both been too "busy" and she didn't get one present. She cried, "I work hard for you all year, I would like a little show of affection." I was surprised - she taught me the greatest lesson ever - that each person is precious and special and should be treated as such. Thereafter - at Xmas and each person is precious and special and should be treated as such. Thereafter - at Xmas and birthdays - she always received at least one gift and a lot of affection. She was nearly blind the last few years of her life - and spent the very last 3 years in a nursing home. She died of a combination of heart & kidney failure just shortly before her 99th birthday. SP#1 24 Sep 1910 White, Frank S 1886 (3989-3990)

b. Stewiacke, NS; d. Maple Ridge, BC; occ. Farmer & Trader. He had an abiding love of horses - they understood each other. At age 4 he would crawl beneath the belly of his father's work horse and punch the animal and was never harmed. In 1890 the family moved to Halifax. NS and a milk delivery route. At a farewell party, Percy received an autograph album - one poem read:
                                            "If wisdoms ways you wisely seek,
Three things observe with care;
                                               To whom you speak, of whom you speak,
                                                      And when you speak, and where."
 He took the advice and was always considerate of others and didn't talk down anyone. Although he only graduated from Grade 4 - he was a shrewd business trader all of his life and owned much property and livestock. At age 19, he and brother Herbert moved to Alberta of pain, he drove (a horse and wagon) the 40 or so miles into Calgary to see a Doctor.

After a couple of weeks, he was released and started home with brother Leonard driving the team. The team bolted, Percy jumped from the buggy and caught the team but rebroke his toe.
He had wasted enough time on one toe - so he just forgot it and it remained deformed until
He had wasted enough time on one toe - so he just forgot it and it remained deformed until he died. It is said that when the Doctor asked Percy to show his other foot for comparison, Percy said, "Crikey, I only warshed one foot." In 1902 he joined the 15th Light Horse Cavalry as a "summer" soldier. In 1916, while visiting another farmer, he met Ella Smith White. He farmed in Alberta, Saskatchewan and British Columbia. In 1939, the family moved to Hayter, ALTA and a small Hotel and Grocery business. As the new Hotel owner, his first act was to close the tavern - he was a teatotaler all his life. One example of his generosity: late one night, 2 young men came to the Hotel and asked if they could sleep in his barn as they had no money. "No, you can't sleep in the barn. But you can sleep in the Hotel and I'll give you a couple of good meals. If you're ever here again, you can repay me." He never expected to see them again - but he did - after harvest season they returned and paid him for his kindness. He died from the results of kidney failure.

own orchestra and played on radio in Vancouver BC & at dances, constructed several houses; own orchestra and played on radio in vancouver BL a at dances. Constructed several nouses; last job was as a construction supervisor working on large hotels and buildings in Toronto. While working on a ladder he had a stroke, collapsed, went to hospital and ended up in a nursing home with little use of his left side - could no longer play banjo - his favorite instrument. When he returned from WWII he and his wife split up - a court approved seperation. From 1945 until about 1974 he never saw his two children. His wife, Anne, kept telling Jim #3992, "You're no good, just like your father." The boy finally tired of this and ran away from home at age 14. He worked for farmers and continued his education to graduate as an engineer. But, he always wanted to see his father again. Around 1970 Jimmy contacted Ralph #3991 and after renewing acquaintances, he visited his father (Russell) in the Toronto nursing home. It was like a Hollywood ending. Jim & his wife entered the Home and asked for Russell White. The nurse took them to his room and said, "Russ, you have visitors." He turned to the door, squinted and said, "Jimmy, is that you? Is it really you?" Mithout a word they rushed into each others arms. End of scene.

Salesman; according to Grace #4371, Reg looked like the famous musician Hoagy Carmidhael who was a 2nd cousin by marriage. Ellen, a sister of the real Matt Dillon (Old West Sheriff) married into this family - not related the Smith side of the family. When Reg was Il or 12, he fell and Jarred his body causing health problems the rest of his life. He and other kids were jumping across alleys from roofs in Boston, he missed a jump and fell 3 stories landed on his feet on an old mattress.

b. Chelsea, MA; m. Revere, MA; d. Weymouth, MA; occ. Factory worker; she supplied many anecdotes on this family in her letter October 1984. Of herself she says: she was 15 when her mother died and her father raised her after that. She raised her 5 younger siblings, a sick brother (Reg. #4361) and a lame father. She bathed his leg and cared for him daily. In return, he trusted her and gave her much freedom. One night at 1 AM, she (about age 22) and a guy were parked in her driveway and in a "clinch". He asked her to be his "steady". Her father came outside and shouted, "Are you gonna stay out all night?" Embarrassed, she fled inside the house.
 She was the only one of 15 children to graduate from High School (went to Night School for 3 yrs). She was the only one of her sisters to drive a car, ride a motorcycle, swim, ride horseback, and dance every weekend with a group of friends. At one time she worked as a waitress in a VT Hotel for $7 a week and board.
She waited until age 33 when her father was in a permanent home before she married. SP 19 Aug 1939 Hollander, John Emil Sr.10 Sep 1905 20 Aug 1974 (4447,4448) b. Chelsea, MA; d. Weymouth, MA; occ. Civil Services - Ordnance Inspector for US Navy Children: #4447 Joan E; #4448 John E.

b. Norwich, CT; occ. Farmer; Medical Physician from self study & often performed surgery and medication. Once, after an operation at night he stopped at a country farm to ask for lodging and found a festive wedding in progress. He was invited in as a guest. To pay for his lodging he spoke and made them laugh and cry - he was an eloquent orator. Once he encountered a wolf in the wilds and he conquered it. Once at a town meeting he moved that a pious Minister of the Gospel give up ownership of a slave called Toney and let the man go free.

   lived in Anchorage, AK in 1990's; occ. aircraft pilot; deeply involved in Ralph Smith genealogy - wrote a book to be pub. 1993 said to contain the latest, most accurate data on Ralph Smith and descendants. I corresponded with Paul and we exchanged some information but he wanted to keep most of his research proprietary until he had published it. He provided only minimal details on his own family line.

occ. Minister; m. 1st to #6959; NOTE: info from p.587 of Barrington Township by Edwin Crowell shows Albert age 60 when he m. to Hannah #6248 and had 11 children. Other source shows the 11 children were from his first wife (#6959) not from Hannah and I think this is more likely considering his age at marriage.

   d. yellow Fever on voyage from West Indies to Barrington, NS 6979 .6302 Doane, Benjamin 7 Sep 1823 After 1902 (7547-7549,10031)
b. & m. Barrington, NS; lived in Plainfield, NJ in 1909; aged 14 he shipped to sea as a cook & on this first voyage, in Halifax, NS harbor, cannons boomed from the citadel and city was decorated for coronation of Queen Victoria. Until age 21 he sailed from Halifax to West Indies. In 1845 he shipped aboard the whaler "Athol" as a boatsteerer to the South Seas. Served 3 yrs on the whaler. Capt. James Doane Coffin of the Athol tutored him in math and navigation. In the Sea of Okhotsk was cut in the hand when cuttien in a table from the first form.
 navigation. In the Sea of Okhotsk was cut in the hand when cutting in a whale -took 6 months to land in Sydney, Australia where he received medical treatment. His hand healed and he made his way back to NS aboard merchant ships. His first voyage as Captain was on the brig "Ambassador" of Shelburne, NS, laden with lumber from Port Medway, NS to the Barbados. On 12 Dec 1851, 1 day into the voyage, in a gale, they found the "Arrival" sinking. They saved Capt. Tappen and his 5 men. Capt. Doane steered so close to the flundering vessels mainboom that 2 of the rescued sailors stepped off the boom and onto the brig's main rigging. After marriage in 1852, they moved from NS to NY, became US citizens and he sailed from NY port until retirement in 1889. During the Civil War, he volunteered and served with the Union Navy as an Ensign but was not called into actual duty.

His shipmates attested to his strength; "he could hang on by his eyelids", "he could tie himself in a knot", "going from one yardarm to the next, he would climb the leach of the topsail". Tales are told of his bravery; that he saved 2 children from drowning in Halifax harbor; saved his Captain's life during a mutiny in the South Pacific; in Japanese Islands he prevented the murder of a man he hated; single handedly put down a mutiny aboard the barque Theresa in NY lower bay.
 to land in Sydney, Australia where he received medical treatment. His hand healed and he barque Theresa in NY lower bay.

His philosophy of life is shown by these statements he made; "never do yourself what you would condemn in others", "do the duty that lies nearest even if you thereby let the 'main chance' go", "If I would lie 'for' you, how could you be sure that others might not induce me to lic 'against' you?" This last was made to certain shipowners in response to a request from them.

Over a period of several decades he compiled a file of information on over 15,000 persons in Queens County, MS - most relating to this Smith genealogy. They are typed on over 650 sheets of paper and have been microfilmed by PANS. Keith Decker of Brooklyn, NS alerted me to this and has done some research for me on it. I have seen only a few pages of the work. It is available at PANS, Halifax, MS and is identified as, "T.8. Smith Genealogies Vol. 853-855 Reel #12 Ripley to Snow". It would be a goldmine for anyone wishing to continue this work. As for me, I have reached over 14,500 names and cannot include more in this book.

Usually conflicting info comes from two seperate sources - this time, one book ("Jabez Snow Dependents", copy in PAMS) lists two different biographies on two seperate pages (apparently the author was unaware of the contradiction). Both bios show ancestors as Jabez 1, Josiah 2, Moses/Tamar 3. In one bio he dies single in a Soldiers Home, in the other he is married and has 5 children. This book can be seen on LDS microfilm 1307616 (Captain Jabez Snow by Cyrus #11330 to CA on cattle trek. Near Missouri River, 2 mon (robbers) stopped him but Tim fled on a fast horse. On Platte (?) route he got lung fever and was cured by homeopathic medicine of Mr & Mrs Morey. He killed bison for food and used buffalo chips (dung) for fire fuel. Between Platte and Salt Lake, UT he lost his saddle horse one night (either thieves or Indians) so they drove the cattle for 800 miles on foot. It took 6 months from MA to Stockton, CA. 1864 - JP for Sweetwater, Esmeraldo Co., NV 1871 - planted the first alfalfa in the USA. *NOTE- see Cyrus #11330. SP 1864 Nichol, Margaret (of Gault, ONT)

he whittled toys & trinkets; Officer in CommodoreMcDonough's fleet during battle of Plattsburg (Lake Champlain). They had a rooster as mascot in a hen coop. During battle the coop was knocked to pieces and rooster flew up in rigging. Roosters crowing inspired men to greater effort and they won a victory and chased the British boats off the lake.

Children: #123 Mary L: #124 Elizabeth D: #125 Lodowick III.

NOTE: his number is so far out of sequence due to the confusion that exists in various genealogies and records. He is sometimes confused with Lodowick #121 (see) and originally I had him as that number. Records kept by I B Smith #7760 have proven otherwise and this info came to my attention just as I was closing this project. It was necessary to give him a new number (hence #14542 is very much out of sequence with his children and parents).
 T B Smith writes: "Captain Lodowick Smith was a young and capable shipmaster who had served in Liverpool Privateers against the Americans in the War of 1812. On one occasion he was captured by the enemy and pressed into their service as a member of a prize crew. On the way to the New England home port of the American Privateer, Smith persuaded one or two other Nova Scotians to assist him in a desperate attempt to re-take the ship. They succeeded, after a struggle, and young Captain Smith brought the vessel home to Liverpool in triumph." "It was a lonely and anxious time for the young bride in Milton, NS. The war broke out a few months after their marriage and the bridegroom put out to sea at once in the soon-to-be-famous "Liverpool Packet", privateer. In the autumn, her first child was born and named Mary Letitia. Thereafter, she saw her husband only in intervals in the cruises of the ship against the enemy."

"When the war ended in 1815 times were hard. Young Captain Smith, with typical bluenose enterprise, began to make trading voyages to the West Indies and South America. Then came the blow which fell upon so many wives and mothers in Liverpool, Milton and Brooklyn (NS) in the days of the southern trade. Yellow fever broke out in Captain Smith's ship as she lay at Rosario, Argentina, and nearly the whole crew perished, among them Smith himself. His descendants (in 1945) still preserve a kindly letter written to the young widow by another Bluenose Captain in the port, telling her of her 28 year old husband's death." (NOTE: elsewhere in his records, I B Smith writes: "Lodowick Smith died of Yellow Fever in the West Indies. An old record I have seen, in the possession of Wilson Kempton in Milton in 1950 says: Lodowick Smith died in the island of Grenada, Feb. 25th, 1817, aged 26 years 5 months and 8 days." I have no idea which of the two accounts is correct. Did he d. in Argentina or West Indies?)

This ends the list for now. Additional work can be done (by those interested) by researching the manuscript notes of T B Smith #7760 (see) as he claims to have over 15,000 names in his research and it is all on file in PANS in microfilm. That research alone could add several thousand more names to this present book.

A LETTER FROM NATHANIEL SMITH

Reproduced on the following pages is a letter that Nathaniel Smith #46 wrote to Benjamin Collins Esq., Liverpool, NS on 23 March 1795. He was in the Caribbean on St. Vincent and was witness to a native uprising. He wrote the letter to explain why he was delayed. Since the script is difficult to read - here is a translation. I have not corrected the spelling as it helps provide an atmosphere of that earlier time. Also note there is no punctuation. The word "Charabs" refers to the Caribbean natives.

Envelope addressed to: Benjah Collins Esq., Merchant, Liverpool in favour Cap. Harlow. (probably means that Capt. Harlow transported the letter).

St. Vincent, March 23th. 95

POST SCRIPT

After compiling this book, there were a few items which had not been said - hence this post script.

! spent considerable time in trying to unearth the truth about Ralph Smith and his wives (see discussion under #1) and I think we will not unearth any additional information. The same sort of problem (that of an earlier genealogist making statements in a book which later generations are unable to verify) applies to many other names in this book. We simply do not have the time to question the accuracy of every one of the nearly 15,000 (plus spouses) names in this book. I would, however, like to mention one of them.

Information from several sources claims that Elizabeth Smith #5 married Jabez Snow. Some researchers question this. The evidence seems to support that Jabez married an Elizabeth but it is unclear as to what information it was that made early researchers determine she was the daughter of Ralph Smith. In this case I have accepted that the early researchers probably had cause to arrive at the conclusion they did and I have included the Snow line in this book.

This book goes back in time only as far as 1610 and depends largely upon previously compiled genealogies, the memories and records of living persons and some written records (census, LOS microfische, newspapers, legal documents). Previously 1 had completed a family history of my Blois ancestors going back into the 8th century and found many conflicts in dating. These errors are explained in a quote I found in the book "Kinship, It's All Relative" by Jackie Smith Arnold (1990) - "Prior to the 12th century, Western ancestral history was oral and belonged to the realm of story-tellers and balladeers. When family history needed to be written, clergymen took over the job." So, a word of advice - take all family history as "probable" or "possible" and not as "absolutely 100% positive" no matter when or where you find the information.

Although all of the family historians who wrote books on Ralph Smith have correctly identified him as from Hingham, MA, it seems several people who have not read these books come across the Rev. Ralph Smith and assume that he is ours. The confusion results from the name being the same. There are at least three with that name - one died in Hingham, MA and was buried 15 Feb. 1640, one is ours (see information re Ralph Smith #1 earlier in this book) and the third was a Reverend who wasn't even in Hingham.

Considering the first two, at least one of them came from Hingham, England on board the Elizabeth Bonaventure. We do not know where the other was from. One of them died in Hingham, MA and the other moved to Eastham. Which was which? Was the Ralph who died in Hingham, MA the son of the other Ralph or were they not related? There is no way today to know for certain. This will remain a mystery.

Rev. Ralph Smith was apparently born in Gainsford, Durham, England in 1589 and came via the ship Talbot to Plymouth, MA in 1629. In England he studied the Ministry at Christ's College, Cambridge and was the first Minister at Plymouth, MA. He is not the Ralph Smith that is the progenitor of our line.

At the same time I was working on this present book, Charles Paul Smith #5811 of Anchorage, AK was also working on a book. His book is not yet published (expected in 1993) and will contain details on the first five generations of Ralph Smith. Since his book will be published after mine, it is possible that it will contain newer information - you might want to check a copy when it becomes available. The Association of Descendants of Ralph Smith of Hingham and Eastham, Massachusetts should be able to tell you how to buy a copy - check with your local LDS Family History Library for the current address. Just a word about them - newcomers to genealogy are often reluctant to contact the LDS Library because they fear that "the LDS is a religion and they will try to convert me." Nothing could be further from the truth - they provide a marvelous service for people seeking information on ancestors - they do not charge (except for postage when needed) and they do not try to convert you. You can use their services with the same freedom you would use any public library (except they are not supported by public funds). No, I am not a Morman - I am a Freethinker.

This book was written to accommodate the idiosyncrasies of computerization. For example; the first line of every number contains the same sort of information in exactly the same number of spaces so that columns will be fairly straight up and down. But, sometimes people have names which are too long for the space allotted. So, I have either pushed the birth date to the right a bit or I have not included the entire name on the first line - just initials. Which explains why you will sometimes find on the second line a cryptic comment such as, "initial E stands for Elnathan" or somesuch.

A word to those few people who will not provide information - for whatever reason. Almost everyone I contacted was gracious enough to provide the information for which I asked. I did have a couple of refusals - one outright the others simply didn't answer. Let me tell you about one Blois who didn't answer when I was compiling the Blois genealogy (my father's line - I have already pub. books on it). He was pleasant enough and was willing to talk even on the phone but simply would not provide the necessary data. After his death his children came to me with questions - questions I could not answer because he had not given me the answers. That's sad because now his children will never know and it would have been simple while he was yet alive to have provided the information. So, if you are ever asked to help a genealogist - please cooperate - your children or grandchildren may thank you.

NEW RESEARCH - TOO LATE TO INCLUDE

As this book was going to press (that is final copies coming from my computer printer) I received information on two new pieces of research which would have added more thousands of names to this already full book. I had planned to publish back in 1988 and that was delayed due to finding a lot of new data. I simply cannot continue to put off publication - so the book is going to press without the new data. However, I will tell you about the data and you can do your own research on it if you wish. Also, at some future year I may just issue a Supplement to this present work (no guarantee).

The first item came to my attention from Keith Decker of Brooklyn, NS. Keith is not related to our Smith family but has provided invaluable assistance to me. He discovered an unpublished typewritten manuscript written by Thomas Brenton Smith #7760 (see). This work contains the names of over 15,000 persons (not all in our Smith family) and was researched over several decades. You cannot get a copy - but you can see it if you visit PANS in Halifax, NS. That is the only place where a copy exists. Ask them for the T.B. Smith Genealogies Vol. 853 - 855, Reel #12. It contains a wealth of new (to me) information.

I was alerted to the second item by Paul Smith #5811 (see). The Mayflower Society has published a new book - just now released (1992) - called "Stephen Hopkins" by John D. Austin. It is based on over 30 years research. It contains much new material that would change some items in this present book. Your local LDS Family History Library may well have a copy. I have not seen the book myself and am only aware of one major change to my own book ...

POSSIBLE ERROR ..... affecting Samuel Smith #18.

John Austin states that Samuel Smith #18 only married once - to Marry Higgins and had only one child - Samuel #9951. He believes that the Samuel who married Sarah Snow was a different Samuel (he does not know his parentage). As I said, I have not seen the book so I do not know what evidence Austin had on which to base his conclusion - he may or may not be correct. The info as I have it (with 3 wives) comes from earlier sources. Austin believes the "erroneous" info came from a Higgins in 1900 and was simply repeated by other authors (including myself).

! wish you many hours of happiness in your-own personal search for your ancestors.

Balph

Ralph S. Blois

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

A work of this nature cannot be done without the help of many people. I would like to recognize the following people who provided information and help in preparing this book. If I have missed anyone, it was not intentional and I apologize. In addition to these helpful people, I also want to recognize the authors of the sources listed on page I. A thank you also goes to the Public Archives of Mova Scotia, the Massachusetts Historical Society, the Eastham Historical Society and the Hingham Historical Society for their resources upon which I have drawn.

Thank you to.....

ť

This is a computer generated index and contains the name of most persons listed in this book. We, obviously, have not been able to check every single name to ensure that they are listed. Some names may be missing - if you find one - please tell us so we can correct this index in future editions (if such exist).

The spelling may vary from index to list - if so, the list is to be considered the more correct. We say "more" correct because we do not know for absolute certainty that either one is correct. Spellings are as we found them. If you cannot find a name spelled as you would spell it - try a variation in spelling.

This index consists of twin columns showing first the surname followed by given names (a max. of two names) and the individuals number. Look up that number in the list and you will find data on that person. The listing will provide additional numbers for the parent and children of that person - see "How To Use The List" on page 4 in the Introduction to this book.

SOURCES

Information to be found in The Consolidated Genealogies of the Ralph Smith Family was gathered from many sources: over 30 published books, obituaries, USA & Canada Census records; marriage, birth, baptism & death records; correspondence with the Historical Societies of Mass., the Towns of Hingham and Eastham, Mass and many private persons. We visited the Public Archives of Mova Scotia in Halifax, other Archives in Shelburne, Tusket & Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, and the LDS Family History Library, Salt Lake City, UT.

Information to be found in this Supplement to my original work was gathered from correspondence with individuals who purchased copies of the original book and who had information to add thereto and from LDS microfilm and microfische records. Altho 32 books were consulted for the First Edition only one book (actually an LDS microfilm) was consulted during work on this Supplement:

Genealogical Notes of Cape Cod Families (LDS Microfilm ₩0889258 thru 0889265).

The size of this volume and high cost of publishing made it necessary to typeset this work on an Apple IIe computer, print it on a Transtar printer, and produce copies on a Mita DC-122 copier. It was hand collated, stapled, padded and bound.

THE SUPPLEMENT to THE CONSOLIDATED GENEALOGIES of the RALPH SMITH FAMILY

by Ralph S. Blois

***** WARNING *****

If you have not fully read this introduction - please do'so before consulting the list. This book is NOT organized in the manner of other family histories.

INTRODUCTION

After publishing The Consolidated Genealogies of the Ralph Smith Family in 1992, I began to accumulate many names that had not been included in that work. I had closed off the work due to its length - nearly 600 pages with index. The flow of new information had ceased and it seemed appropriate to publish.

Since then, many people who have purchased copies of the book have given me much new information. In order that this material will be available to future generations, I have gathered it into this supplement. I have also repeated some (as little as possible) information from the original book so that readers will have a sense of the complete history of specific family lines going back to Ralph Smith without the necessity of reading my original book. Thus, this supplement is complete in itself. I have not included information on Hingham in either England or America in this present volume. You will need to consult my original book for that.

Should additional material be found after publication of this supplement, it is not likely that I will publish a second supplement - I leave that task to future generations.

ERRORS in GENEALOGICAL RESEARCH

There is much to be said on this topic and I have already covered it extensively in my original book and do not wish to beat the subject to death by repeating it here. Suffice it to say that there are probably errors in this supplement. Also, I know of no book that is not subject to errors - even if they only be typographic. One reader of my original book felt I had made an error because a prestigious society only reported 5 children of one specific person while I listed 6. The presumption here is that a "prestigious society" never makes a mistake. It was not their mistake per se. The evidence for the 6th child came up after they had published their data - it was not wrong, they were simply out-of-date. Keep an open mind and do not be too swayed by previously published information - it may not be complete. For a more complete discussion on errors - see my previous book.

There is one error that I have not previously covered. That is the error of attributing children to parents simply because of similar names or being in the same locale. This is particularly true of common names such as Mary or John. A researcher finds birth certificates (or other paper evidence) to prove that a couple had a child named Mary, as an example. Who did she marry - if indeed she married at all? Usually the researcher looks for a Mary who would be of the correct age and locale and locates a marriage record for a person with that name. See examples of this under $1$, $594 and $9589$. Since marriage documents do not always give the parents of the bride or groom - the conclusion as to parentage is often guesswork. I confess, I have done it myself when no other avenue was available. Nevertheless it can result in error and such conclusions should be approached with caution.

HOW TO USE THE LIST

This book contains a comprehensive index. If you know the name of an ancestor - find them in the index. If you cannot find one name - try another, or perhaps a different spelling of the name. Some folks use their second name (e.g. John Henry may be called Henry not John), others have double names (e.g. Mary Jane is not called Mary nor Jane - but Mary-Jane). The actual name a person used was known to those around them but is not known to future generations nor to those of us doing research. Because we do not know the persons "familiar" name, we use the first name. Thus, while you may know your ancestor as "Henry", you may find him listed in the index as "John" (using the previous example).

Once you have located the person's name, the index gives that person's number. Since the list is presented in numerical sequence it becomes easy for you to locate that specific person. Against that number you will find all of the information we were able to find on that specific ancestor. You will find important dates, occupations, locations where they lived, etc. You will also find other sets of numbers for "Parent" and "Children" included with the listing for your ancestor. Take the "Parent" number and look it up and you will find information on that person's father and mother - look up their "Parent" number and you have information on the grandparents of the first person you looked up. Keep tracking backward through each "Parent" number and you will end up with #1 Ralph Smith. The same logic applies to the "Children" numbers going in the opposite chronological sequence to children, grandchildren, etc.

TO SIMPLIFY:

 Look in the index to find the number allotted to the person you seek. Each person has a different number and there is absolutely no hidden meaning to that number - it simply identifies that one person - that's all it does.

Look up that number in the list (main part of the book) for information about that person. A second number is shown following the person's number. That 2nd number is the number for the person's parent - look it up for information on the parent.

3. At the end of the first line for each person you will find a list of numbers for that person's children (if they had any). Look up those numbers for information on their children.

That's all there is to it.

As far as possible we have tried to allot numbers in numerical order so that families will be grouped together. This is not always possible since we did not receive all of the information at the same time. The most commonly asked question from those using this book is, "Why is my number so different from my siblings?" The answer is because we found you before (or after) we knew you had any siblings. In-between you and your siblings, we found many people in different families and allotted them the numbers that you feel should have gone to 'your siblings. When we finally found your siblings, the numbers left to use were way out of sequence.

Here is a sample number showing the format we have used. Once you get familiar with this format - finding family groups becomes easy.

(1) (2) ((3)(4) (5)(6) Birth Date Death Date Surname, Given Name Children Parent

Note that the column headings shown above are not shown on every page (to save space) so you will need to imagine they are there. Here is an example:

(5)(1) (2) (3) (4) (6) No. Parent Surname, Given Name Birth Date Death Date Children (4) (1) Smith, Daniel baptized (3 Mar 164) (20 Jan 1720) (441-446) No. Parent Hingham, MA; d. Eastham, MA SP 20 Jan 1676 Young, Mary 28 Apr 1658 7 Apr 1693 (441-446) daughter of John & Abigail (Howland) Young

FIRST LINE:

→(1) - that person's own specific number. This identifies that person - nobody else has that The number has no other significance - it tells you absolutely nothing except that number is for that person and no other.

(2) - the specific number for that person's parent.
(3) - the person's name - surname is given first.
(4) - the person's birth date - or baptism or christening date when birth is not known, indicated by "bap" or "chr".

(5) - the person's death date when known.
(6) - the specific numbers allotted to the specific numbers allotted to that person's children are enclosed in brackets ( ). When the individual had more than one spouse, the children are shown against the spouse when known.

SUCCEEDING LINES:

More information is given when known, in the following sequence.

The location of the person's birth, death and marriage.

A biographical sketch of the person, occupation, etc. Information on the spouse (SP): wedding date, surname, given names, birth date, death date, children.

Biography or other information about the spouse.

Lastly, the given names of the children and their numbers.

We have shown the parents of the spouse when known but not repeated the surname. For example: MacDonald,Celia dau. of Archibald & Sarah (Ross). There is no need to print Archibald MacDonald since it is obvious his surname is MacDonald and the child (Celia) takes the surname of the father not the mother. The mother's surname is shown in brackets (Ross).

IF ALL THIS SOUNDS TOO COMPLICATED - see the abbreviated instructions on the first page of the list just above the information on Ralph Smith #1.

OTHER IMPORTANT NOTES

In tracking children, you may find a parent# not the one you expected. Chances are this is an inter-family marriage and both parents have #'s in this book. The computer format only allows me to use one number - so, go to the parent# shown and you will find the # of the spouse.

Re: names. In some cases there is no room on a line to type the full name of the person. So, I use initials. On the next line you will see the initials explained. When the parents of a spouse are known you will read a statement such as, "dau. of John & Sarah (Bish)". (see comment above on surnames of female spouse). Spelling of names is as we found them and may not be how you spell them.

In a book of this size I needed to conserve space. The column headings for the list do not appear on every page - they only appear once at the start of the list. The col. head takes up one line plus one blank line - that's 800 lines for 400 pages - at 73 lines per page that is an extra 11 pages. A separate line just for birth location also takes up space. When a group of people were all born in the same place I have included a NOTE stating this at the start of the group. If you find no b. place shown against the person you are seeking - look back to previous numbers - you may find such a note. Yes, listing the names of children takes up space - these lines could have been deleted but I thought them of value - it saves looking up each number to find the names of children. Note that space only allows one name to be used for each child and it may not be the name with which you are familiar - I have used the first given name in each case. Further, to conserve space I do not include a space between surname and given name (just a comma) and when names are too long they tend to run into dates. Space (or lack of it) is the reason for not using "correct" grammar, punctuation and spelling.

FOR FURTHER RESEARCH

For those who will read this book long after I am gone, and who may wish to conduct further research .....

In the first Edition of my book I mentioned a source for more information being the T B Smith genealogies on microfilm in PANS (Public Archives of Nova Scotia), 6016 University Ave., Halifax, NS B3H 1M4, Canada. There are 15 reels (#15 is an index) in the series. In 1993 you could buy a copy of each reel for $50.00 plus $4.00 shipping. The cost exceeds what I am willing to spend - but, I give this information here for anyone in future years who wishes to pursue this avenue of information. If you visit PANS in Halifax you can look at this material for free. There is a lot of information there. Here is a list of the 15 reels:

Reel 1 Atkins- Braman Reel 9 Macumber - Murtha 10 Myra - Osborne Brawn - Collie Osgond - Ringrose Collins - Dechman 11 Decker - Frehan 12 Ripley - Snow Feener - Freeman 13 Snyder - Wagner Frelick - Harrington Walker - Zwicker 15 Harrington - Jones Index Я Joseph - Mack

ERRORS in the FIRST EDITION

Surprisingly few errors have been brought to my attention. This does not mean errors do not exist, it merely means that people have not informed me of them. Here are the errors that have been found in the first edition:

#3 - John died either 1672 or in Feb 1678 - not conclusive.

#12 - there is some dispute as to whether John ever m. Mary Hopkins. I am unable to either prove or disprove it.

#26 - Bertha Smith was m. 1731 not 1721.

#38 - change #6620 in the list of children to read "Alexander" not Patty Collins.

#39-SP we now have two death dates - one as listed and one from Vital Records of Liverpool, NS of 18 Sep 1771.

#41-SP Cahoon, Elizabeth, change b. date from 1749 to read 3 Jun 1759

#123 thru 125 - parent is #14542 not #121.

#440 - was born 13 March either 1712 or 1/13 - not conclusive.

#3814 and 3815 were confused due to the similarity in names. #3814 is not Nancy but is Marcy who m. Benj. Bearse. #3815 is Mary who m. Levi Nickerson not Benj. Bearse. See corrected data on page 17 of the supplemental listing.

#4331 was m. 1914.

#5103 - Seth was b. 1737 on 19 March, 19 April or 22 May - not conclusive.

#7544 thru #7640 - pages with these numbers were inadvertently missed from some copies of the original book - if you have not received yours, please write to me for them.

#7582 Tabitha Kendrick m. Philip Johns and had 2 ch. #7597 William & #7598 Thomas. This info is duplicated because we didn't know that #12559 Tabitha Kendrick was the same person as #7582 - we have shown her with 2 parents - #7581 her father Edward Kendrick and her mother Rebecca Smith #4135. The children: William #7597 & 12564 are duplicated as are Thomas #7598 & 12565.

#7566 Lydia Hamilton could not be b. 1718 (her parents wed in 1793) the date must be 1798.

#9588 .443 Smith Jeremiah (1714-1754) m. Lydia Lincoln (1718- ) my original book shows a child Jeremiah #12319 - there is some question as to whether this child ever existed. See further comment below under #12319

#10398-SP Mrs. Lydia Johnson is #10408 not 10407.

#10399 Samuel's surname is Verge not Foster.

#10416 & 10420 have incorrect spelling for town in Montana - it is Choteau not Chateau.

#10427 spouse #2 was m. in Sand Point, IDAHO not OH.

#10437, 10440, 10442 - spelling is incorrect for town in ONT - it is St. Catherines (the St. was dropped).

#12086 - not possible to be b. & m. in same year - 1744 - possibly m. should read 1764.

#12319 .9588 Smith, Jeremiah - my original book lists a birth date of 2 Apr 1754. This exact date is listed in the Eastham, MA Vital Records as the DEATH date of a Jeremiah Smith. Now, it is possible that two people of the same name were born and died on the same date (Coincidence #1) whether it is likely is questionable. Two seperate pieces of data show that two Jeremiah Smiths m. a Hannah Atwood 100 years apart (Coincidence #2) - that also is possible but unlikely. Once more, we have a daughter Hary b. to Jeremiah Smith and Hannah (Atwood) in Eastham, MA on 17 Feb 1778 whereas the Vital Records show another birth with identical names and dates - except it is 1678 not 1778 (Coincidence #3). Again, it is possible BUT three such coincidences are pretty strong evidence that it is not so. Unless further evidence is forthcoming I will assume that the information I had previously on Jeremiah #12319 and Mary 12320 is incorrect.

#14542 has children #123 thru 125.

Minor errors in dates, etc. may have been corrected on other numbers - you may wish to compare the new information herein with the previous book to discover any such corrections.

ABBREVIATIONS

To conserve space, many abbreviations are used in this book. They are listed here. I know how disturbing abbreviations can become when you have no idea what they mean. Apparently many authors feel an abbreviation is so well known (to them) that there is no need for an explanation. But, years later, a new person reading the material does not have the previous author's experience, background or chronology (times change) and may never have heard of the "common" abbreviation.

UPDATED INFORMATION ......

Much of the following information on Ralph Smyth and his six children is reprinted from my original work. Some new information has been added and corrections made. It is printed here so that those listed in the supplemental information need not refer back to my original book in order to complete their family genealogy back to Ralph Smith.

HOW TO USE THIS LIST....

Each person is identified by a different number in the first column. The spouse(s) info appears 1 or several lines below and is identified by "SP" and the wedding date, the name, birth & death date and children's numbers.

The last column lists the numbers given to the person's children - look up these numbers for info on the children.

-The number here (2nd col.)is NOT the person's number - it is the number given to the person's parent (father/mother) - look up this number for info on the person's parents.

This is the person's name, birth & death dates.

b. Hingham, Norfolk, Eng.; d. Eastham, MA
Thought to have sailed from Yarmouth, Norfolk, Eng. first week in May 1633 aboard the Elizabeth

Thought to have sailed from Yarmouth, Norfolk, Eng. first week in May 1633 aboard the Elizabeth Bonaventure, arrived Boston, No. America on 15 June 1633. The ships register is not complete and he does not appear on it. He settled about 12 miles south of Boston in Bare Cove (renamed in 1635 to Hingham) in Sept. 1633 and is claimed to be one of five founders of the town named after his birthplace in England. The other four were: Nicholas Jacobs and family; Thomas Lincoln, a weaver; Edmond Hobart and his brother Thomas Hobart. The Rev. Peter Hobart (a son of Edmond) came from England in 1635 and founded the first church in Hingham in 1635. Ralph spelled his name as Smyth (his sons changed it to Smith). In 1637 he drew a house-lot on "Batchelor Row" (now Main St.). Some claim that he first married in 1638. He then moved to Eastham, MA between Sept. 1652 and March 1654. It is said he had erected a store in Hingham and left it in charge of Josias Hobart when he went to Eastham, where he continued to trade with Josias. He is listed as a "legal voter" in Eastham 22 May 1655, took the "oath of fidelity" 25 Oct. 1657 and became town Constable in 1660. He performed the duties of peace officer and tax collector.

Various guesses have been made as to the name of his father - I have seen two (Ralph & John) none are proved and when checked, evidence could not be provided to support either name.

names of his parents are not known.

About his wife/wives there is some dispute. Some early family historians claim his first wife was either Elizabeth or Rebecca Hobart and the second wife was the widow Mrs. Grace Hatch. The only evidence available today (1993) is this statement found in Vol.6 folio 175. Plymouth Colony Records from a court order: "Administration is granted by this court to Grace Smith, the relict (i.e. widow) of Ralph Smith, and Samuell Smith, son of the sd Ralph Smith, all of the town of Eastham, in the colony of New Plymouth, in New England, deceased, on all the goods and chattells of sd Ralph Smith." No other reference can be found re: a wife to Ralph Smith. Early genealogists may have had access to records no longer available or the information may have come down thru generations as a "family story"

SP#1 1638 Hobart,Rebecca (possible) 1598/1611 Bfr. 1660 (2-7) b. Hingham, England; m. Hingham, MA; d. Eastham, MA; considered to be a daughter of Edmund

Hobart & Margaret (Dewey). Some researchers question this. In 1913 "Ralph Smyth and His Descendants" by Dr. Dwight Smith states that Ralph m. Rebecca Hobart. (Some researchers give her name as Elizabeth.) Author Clarence Almon Torry published a book in 1923 "John Young of Eastham" with detailed information on Edmund Hobart and did not find either a daughter Elizabeth or Rebecca. Hobart's Genealogy by L Smith Hobart (1886) does list a child Rebecca as b. 1598. In a book by Banks, he lists Rebecca, dau. of Edmond Hobart as a passenger on the Elizabeth Bonaventure. The evidence supports the existence of Rebecca as opposed to Elizabeth. I question her b. date - was it 1598 or 1611/12? I prefer 1611 - if so it is 29 Dec 1611. In any case, all of the children recorded are said to be from this marriage. No evidence exists to support two wives or that Grace was the widow Hrs Hatch. These claims are simply taken from accounts made by early genealogists. They may or may not be true. SP#2 m. abt.1660 Hatch,Grace (widow of Thomas Hatch)

As stated above, there is no solid evidence to suppose she was the widow Hatch. The only certainty is that Ralph Smith married a woman named Grace and that his children Samuel, John, Daniel and Elizabeth were baptized in Hingham, MA. Children: #2 Samuel; #3 John; #4 Daniel; #5 Elizabeth; #6 Thomas; #7 Deborah. The Parke Society gives one more child - no name - b. 1639, d. 15 Feb 1640 Hingham, MA - source of this info is not known.

Thomas Williams, mentions a third child, (John #430) in his Will dated 10 May 1692 he leaves a lot of meadowland to his grandchild John Smith #440. Since publication of my original book, we have located two more children: Mary #14686 and Hannah #14763 (in The Genealogical Notes of Cape Cod Families). Other children are not known but there were likely eight in all.

b. Plymouth, MA; d. Eastham, MA; son of Nicholas & Constance (Hopkins) - Constance was the daughter of Stephen Hopkins of the MAYFLOWER. Jabez was a Lt. in Capt. John Gorham's Co. in an expedition to Canada in 1690. In his Will he has a claim for L21 against the govt. for "going a warfare in Canada", this was offset partly by a debt of 15 Shillings for a cutlass that he lost.

Some genealogists disclaim this connection of the Smith to Snow families. The evidence shows only that Jabez married an Elizabeth - no surname given. Smith family tradition (in several books) has claimed this to be our Elizabeth Smith. There is today no paper evidence (church records, marriage certificates) to prove this connection. Nevertheless I think it likely to be true.

THAT COMPLETES the known information on Ralph Smith and his children.

THIS NEXT SECTION lists persons who appeared in my original book but for whom we now have additional information or/and are the ancestors of the new persons shown in the Supplement. Not all of the data from my previous book has been included - for example, data on childrens marriages and grandchildren has not been included when it did not extend into the supplement. In other words, when I had no more information on the family I didn't repeat what I had already printed previously. If you want that information you will have to read my previous book.

Children: #15 Samuel; #16 Joseph; #8558 Zoheth; #8559 Richard; #8560 Elizabeth; #8561 Ruth. NOTE: the generally accepted genealogy of Samuel Smith only includes 2 children (#15 & #16). The Mayflower Families (pg. 339) refers to the Will of Samuel #15 in which he mentions other names as his siblings; "to Joshua Mayo Smith, son of my late Bro. Zoheth Smith," "to Hannah Sears Smith, daughter of my late Bro. Richard Smith," "to Samuel & and Elizabeth Arey, children of my late sister Elizabeth Arey," "to Hannah Greene, the daughter of my only sister Ruth Greene, wife of Joseph Greene." At this point Samuel's Will seems to contadict itself, Ruth could hardly be his "only" sister if he also had a sister Elizabeth. Unless her name is Ruth Elizabeth. If the date given is correct then in 2 yrs. of m. Samuel #9 would not have time for so many children (even multiple births). There is an error here someolace. The possibilities include: the death (even multiple births). There is an error here someplace. The possibilities include: the death date of 1692 is in error; spouse Bathsheba Lathrop married a second Mr. Smith after Samuel 19 died; there is a recording error in the Will. You decide. Children 18558 thru 8561 may or may not descend from Samuel.
NOTE: some other Smith genealogists to whom I have written tend to dismiss this entire Will with a shrug of the shoulders - sort of "I can't explain it - so I'll ignore it and not mention it - maybe it will go away." Personally, I cannot ignore facts of any kind. He DID make the Will and he DID mention those other siblings - I MUST take them into account.

Ancestral Index gives her parents as Elizabeth (Rogers) & Jonathan Higgins m. 9 Jan 1660.
Elizabeth's father was Joseph Rogers m. Hannah --, and Joseph's father was Thomas Rogers m.
Elsgen --. Ihomas Rogers arrived at Plymouth, NH aboard the Mayflower on 10 Nov 1620. (2) L
Bertrand Smith in his book on Jesse Smith (pub. 1909) gives this genealogy: Sarah's parents - Benjamin Higgins & Sarah Freeman and her (Sarah Freeman) father was Lt. Edmond Freeman who was the son of Major John Freeman and Mercy Prence - Mercy was the dau. of Gov. Thomas Prence & Patience Brewster - Patience was dau. of Elder William Brewster who arrived on the Mayflower.
Which is correct? I have no idea. Both lead back to the Mayflower.

b. probably Truro, MA; d. Port Hood, NS; came to Guysborough, NS with family of 5 sons in 1784, probably from Mass., and purchased a lot from Joseph Hadley for a wharf & business site. In 1786 made his home in Juste au Corps, Port Hood Island, NS. The house was isolated with no roads and long, hard winters. No other families lived in the area. David and 2 sons went seal hunting on the drifted ice on 19 Feb. 1789. An ice flow parted and they drifted from shore. David tried to cross the flows to shore but failing this he started to swim to their small boat. The weight of the water and the cold were too much for him - he was unable to get out of the water. The 2 boys watched as their father drowned. The next day, cold and hungry, their ice flow drifted near the beach at Mabou, NS and the 2 boys got ashore. With their mother and brothers and no neighbors the small tragic family faced life alone in the wilderness.

b. Truro, MA; dau. of Lewis & Sarah; after death of her spouse, she raised her growing family alone under harsh conditions. Water was the only transportation. The nearest merchant was at Arichat, NS. On 25 Aug 1792 she obtained a land grant of 500 acres for herself, sons and daughter. They paid 2 shillings per 100 acres annually at the Feast of St. Michael for use of this land, commencing 2 years after date of the grant. For every 50 acres of plantable land they had to clear 3 acres of land or drain 3 acres of swamp - within 3 years of the grant. They had to raise 3 yeal cattle for every 50 acres of barren land and erect a good dwelling of 20 by 16 feet in floor size. All of this they must have done since the land was not forfeited.

.2377 .1023 Smith, John 19 Mar 1815 9 Mar 1869 (2660-2668)
lived with Uncle John #1026 on Port Hood Island, NS, even after marriage; operated a general store and fished; He accepted US currency from American fishermen, this got him in financial trouble during the US Civil War when US currency decreased in value. His customers complained about receiving US currency and they wanted Canadian money. John wanted to make amends and so redeemed the US currency and took a heavy loss.

SP 4 Apr 1839 Ross, Ann 29 Sep 1821 20 Oct 1902 (2660-2668)

When John died, his widow became involved in a law suit over property ownership. The estate lost in the lower court but won in an appeal with the higher court. The cost of the fight was such that it was said she would have been better off financially if she had lost. Ann was extremely religious and her father was a Methodist Minister. She brought Methodism to Port Hood, NS and insisted that her children attend school, Divine service on Sundays, and prayer meetings during the week. Gambling, dancing, drinking, card playing, were not allowed in her home. She tried, with much success to influence the community at large to follow her beliefs. It is said that when she was first married and came to Port Hood, that her father-in-law said he wanted a hot bannock (bread) served for Sunday breakfast. She replied that she would not work on the Sabbath and that what he would get for breakfast would be a reading from the Bible. All cooking and farm chores had to be done on Saturday so that Sunday was free from work. (Note from Ralph Blois. I just have to insert this comment. On my father's side of the family is a distant Uncle Daniel Blois who lived from 1802 to 1882 in the Gore, Hants County, NS. He was a free spirit and deliberately liked to antagonize religious people by working his blacksmithy on Sundays. He was known as Devil Dan. What an explosion there would have been had Ann and Dan known each other. Neither one would have budged from their position.) Children: #2666 Alice E; #2661 Mary A; #2668 Obediah E P.

b. Port Hood, NS; d. NS; author of The Smiths of Cape Breton, pub. 1967; enlisted in 1914 in Vancouver, BC in the 7th Battalion, Canadian Army and served overseas in Europe during NWI; a lengthy description of his wartime experiences will be found on pages 121-123 of his book. The Canadian and German troops were in trenches only 100 yards from each other. One morning they were confounded to hear a German soldier yell over to them, "How would you like to be in Winnipeg this morning?" The Canadians replied that they had to go to Berlin first and, after the celebration they'd go to Canada. Later in the war, he was wounded and sent back to a hospital in London North (England). He was discharged in Canada on 30 Sept. 1917 and was one of the first soldiers to return to Inverness County, NS. He worked for the Dept. of Fisheries from Jan 1920 to 28 Oct. 1957.

 He was Levi at birth but his mother changed his name to Ansel after his father died. He was a seaman and involved in two murder investigations. In Nov. 1772 he was aboard the schooner Abigail. Seeing what he suspected was a British ship approaching he slung himself overboard on the end of a rope to hide. The Abigail was boarded, he heard sounds of a struggle and returned to deck after the pirates left. He found evidence that his shipmates had been murdered and goods stolen. The Abigail was picked up by a Capt. Doane on Nov. 15th, 1772. Ansel was charged with murder and tried and found innocent. Unconvinced, he was charged a second time and also found innocent. Another time he was seized by the British who tried to impress him into their service. He thrust a harpoon through the heart of a Lt. Parston and was charged again with murder. His lawyer argued that impressment (involuntary induction into the King's Service) was never legal in the colonies and Ansel was only acting in self defence. He was not convicted. He met an untimely death before 1790 in Martinique, West Indies.

               Once, after an operation at night he stopped at a country farm to ask for lodging and found a festive wedding in progress. He was invited in as a quest. To pay for his lodging he spoke and made them laugh and cry - he was an eloquent orator. Once he encountered a wolf in the wilds and he conquered it. Once at a town meeting he moved that a pious Minister of the Gospel give up ownership of a slave called Toney and let the man go free.

NOTE: This is the generally accepted info on Mary Smith. But, Mary is a very common name and several Mary's can be mistaken for each other. The certainty as to their parents is often nebulous. Another source has found info on a Mary and assumed her to be the daughter of #588.
Because of the locale (MA vs CI) I opt for the above but reproduce the other info here anyway.

 SP Apr 1808 Dyer, James #5586 29 Jul 1780 1835 (15697-15700)
NOTE: there may be an error here. Two sources give 2 different spouses for James Dyer - see 15586 - he could not possibly have married both - see m. dates and dates of children. It would not be possible to m. Polly Holt in 1808 and have a child from her in 1811 and also m. Esther Paine in 1808 and have children by her from 1809 thru 1821. Possible solution to the problem, he may have m. Esther in 1818 not 1808 and their first child Joanna may be b. 1819 not 1809.

 b. Arlington, MA; m. Lynn, MA; d. Concord, MA; occ. Customer Engineer; his daughter Barbara writes of him:
"My father met my mother in Church. Dad was a visiting tenor soloist and my mother sang in the choir. I think it was love at first sight! Dad waited until my mother had completed college and they had a quiet wedding in Lynn, MA. They lived at the Watt home until after I was born and then moved into their own apartment. Later, they bought their first house. My dad had a chance for a career change at age 40, he went back to school. He lived in NY temporarily at this time and that was very hard for him. Home was where he always wanted to be! My father was a sensitive person who like to keep things simple. For every great man their is a good woman behind him and my mother was that! Music was a large part of our life. My mother played the piano and Dad sang; with a choir as director, a glee club, a men's quartet, and soloist. We also had a home show; Dad tenor, Mom on piano and singing soprano, sister Marjorie soprano, and me as alto. When my father retired, he did woodworking as a hobby. He will always be remembered for his music, his sense of humor, his attention to details, and his sincere love for his family." SP 7 Aug 1932 Bickford, Jean Chamberlain 15 Nov 1911 (16071, 16105)

Kept an orchard. The story is told that young boys would steal apples from his orchard. One night he hid in a tree with a shotgun filled with rock salt and fired at the youths. They ran away never to steal from him again. He married late in life, to whom is unknown. The marriage ended quickly in divorce. Quarrelsome disposition, kept mainly to himself. His vindictiveness is indicated in his Last Will where he refuses to give the name of his own broher. In part, the Will reads: "I give and bequeath to my brother who I publicly declare without fear of successful contradiction to be the most contemptible thief it has been my misfortune to meet, the sum of $2500. The above mentioned sum being the amount he cheated me of to feather his own nest in his capacity as Executor of the estate of my sister Mrs. Mamie E. Talbot who at the time of her death was a resident of Provincetown. The above mentioned still having in his possession the above mentioned $2500. I take this method to release him, if possible, of the stigma of being a contemptible Thief." Benjamin desired that, after his death, the Will be

TOO LATE TO INCORPORATE ......

MORE CORRECTIONS and ADDITIONS ......

Genealogy is never ending. I closed my files on this Supplement at the end of 1993 and allowed another six weeks for more information to come in. Then, in mid-february I started pulling it all together and began printing - BUT - as always with genealogy I began to receive more information in the form of corrections and additions. This material was too late to incorporate within the appropriate places in the text as I had already printed the bulk of the book. Since I had not completed the index I decided to include this new information in this section which I have titled "Too Late To Incorporate". You will notice that the names of the people in this section appear in the INDEX in a slightly different typeface. That was unavoidable as I now have a different printer. I had to cut and paste these names into the existing index. So, this section actually becomes a Supplement to the Supplement.

The following information is IN ADDITION to information given on previous pages in this book OR in my previous book.

b. Margaree, NS; d. Arlingston, NS; occ. Teacher; her granddaughter Barbara Hilton writes:

"Hannah was recognized as being a bright girl. In addition to her regular schooling she went to Prince Edward Island and completed her studies by compressing two years into one because she was needed at home. This enabled her to teach. She had a one-room schoolhouse on the Cabot Trail and rode on horseback each day to get there. In the Winter, she taught men as well as children as the men were out of work. She was a stern disciplinarian with her family. There was no fighting or loud talk. She only had to rattle her switch on the stove and everyone knew what she meant.

"Her kitchen was strictly for the women; no men allowed. She was a wonderful cook! My fondest memory is coming in the front door to the wonderful smells of hot bread and rolls cooling on top of the black stove, roast beef in the oven. There were piles of mashed potatoes and fresh Kentucky Wonder beans from my grandfather's garden and fresh strawberry shortcake with home-made biscuits for dessert. After dinner we would go into the parlor where Aunt Edith would play Clair de Lune on the piano and my father, a tenor soloist, would sing The Lord's Prayer or The de Lune on the piano and my father, a tenor soloist, would sing the Lord's Prayer or the Enchanted Glade. My grandmother would sit in her chair and knit mittens for her grandchildren. My grandfather would probably be at a church function or upstairs reading the Bible. We didn't sing or play the piano on Sunday if he was home, although he allowed hymns. There was no Sunday paper and protests that it was printed on Saturday would not change his mind. I see the rest of us, a collection of aunts, uncles, and friends moving in and out of the rooms; white walls with dark woodwork. I was content looking at my grandmother's greeting cards collected in a basket. No TY, VCR's, or computer games then!"

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

One of the most frequent questions asked of me is, "How do you fit into the Smith family?" I suppose it is natural that folks want to know something about the author or compiler of a book.

My line to Ralph Smith is as follows:

Ralph Smith #1 to Thomas Smith #6 to David Smith #591 to David Smith Jr #3809 to Zara Smith #3818 to Obed Smith #3843 to my grandfather William Emery C Smith #3880. You will find all of those people in this supplement. The rest of the story will be found in my original book.

I never knew my Smith grandparents. In fact, I only knew Grandmother Melissa on the Blois side of my family - and I only saw her a couple of times in my life. My life was virtually absent of grandparents - to me they were only memories held by my parents.

Grandfather Smith was married twice. My mother Ella Jane Smith #3905 was born in Shelburne, NS, of his second spouse, Mary Jane Locke. Ella married my father, Percy Blois, while working as a housekeeper in Alberta. Altho born in Hants Co., NS, my father and uncle were homesteading in Alberta just at the turn of the century (1900). This was her second marriage. Her son Russell, from the first marriage, was my half-brother and my only sibling. He was some 13 years my senior. I was raised in a family of adults in western Canada and had to make my own entertainment much of the time. I used my imagination and even "published" my own monthly comic book which I drew myself. My entire audience was 4 or 5 of my closest friends.

I was born in Chilliwack, BC on May 1st, 1926. During my early years my parents moved to various farms in Alberta, Saskatchewan and British Columbia. For five years my dad owned and ran a hotel, restaurant and grocery store in the small town of Hayter, ALTA.

In 1945 I joined the Royal Canadian Infantry Corps and was a guard at two Prisoner-of-Mar camps. I was a raw, green, kid and my association with German prisoners was interesting. They were mostly my own age - one was only 14 years old. Hitler was desperate and was taking his soldiers at younger and younger ages. Once while guarding some POM's working in the blacksmith shop, one of them asked me, "If I ran away would you really shoot me?" I had never shot anyone in my life and harbored no anger or resentment towards anyone. I really didn't know what I would do. I looked at him sternly and said, "I don't know. Why don't you try it and we'll find out?" He didn't and I never found out.

Shortly after my discharge, I married Emma Nina Oliver on May 21st, 1946 in Vancouver, BC. Nina was born in England (West Hartlepool) and moved to Canada with her parents when she was two years old. She was raised mostly in the Fraser Valley of BC.

Since then we have accumulated five children - Allison, Kenneth, Sandra, Diana and Dawn and seven grandchildren (as of 1994). Ken and his family live in Tucson, AZ where he retired after over 20 years in the US Air Force. He works for an electronic firm called Artisoft as a computer products troubleshooter. Our four daughters and their families, three married, one divorced, all live within fifty miles of our present home in Moodburn, OR.

My work career has been varied. I spent ten years in the RCAF with most of it at a Technical Services Detachment in Vancouver, BC. There were only three of us in a small office with our headquarters in Calgary, ALIA. We supervised military contracts awarded to civilian contractors. Bristol Aero Engines was our largest account. I recall once that the President of Bristol asked me to sign off a certain form altho they had not yet completed the work. I refused. He was angry and said I was a stubborn blockhead. I reported it to my superior in Calgary and he backed me up. After that, the President was cold towards me and we never got along. He never pulled that stunt again and I was never invited to any of the Bristol social events either. He probably thought I was a bureaucrat and I thought he was dishonest.

After discharge I worked for one year as a technical writer for Canadian Pacific Air Lines. Our family was growing and we needed a bigger income - so I contacted several Aerospace firms and finally was offered a job in advertising and promotions with Barber-Colman Co., Rockford, It. We lived there for ten years. It was a cold town - both in climate and in people. The only folks we got to know were "transients" like ourselves.

Ouring that time, Nina and our youngest daughter Dawn, developed hay fever which cleared up overy time, we took a vacation west of the Rockies. So, deciding that life was too short to live it in misery I applied for and got a job with Leupold & Stevens, Inc. in Portland, OR. Over seventy applied for the job as advertising manager and I was selected. How did I get it? On the basis of my ten years experience with Barber-Colman in advertising and because of one thing I did while with them. One of my jobs at B-C was as the editor for a quarterly newsletter Motor Views which publicized applications of B-C products. Leupold & Stevens manufactures hydrologic instruments (to measure water levels, etc.) and I had written a story on how they used one of B-C micropositioners in one of the L&S instruments. I mentioned this in my job application and said, "I haven't done anything to promote L&S products in four years. I would like to begin to do so once again." And, I got the job.

At L&S I created ads, wrote the copy, shot the photos, drew the art, pasted up the type, let ad contracts, and did a hundred other things including market research, trade show activities, employee newspaper, and a lot more. We were so successful that I set up our own in-house advertising agency Tualatin Advertising so we could get the 15% ad commission. That experience was to prove very useful nearly twenty years later when I was laid off with many others in the cut-backs of the 1980's. I then set up my own ad agency St.Clair Communications which I operated for three years. Then I retired.

My interest in genealogy started in late 1979 when son Ken was contacted by a Mr. Blois in Phoenix, AZ. Ken is a tinkerer and he was building a solar car. One firm he ordered a part from had a problem with his order and looked in the Phoenix phone book to find him. Only one Blois was listed so they phoned him. That Blois walked the three blocks to Ken's house and told Ken, "Are you Ken Blois? I have a phone call for you at my house."

I was surprised when Ken told me of that event. You see, in all my life I had only known of about a dozen people named Blois - all close relatives. Here was a man I had never heard of. We corresponded and I could find no connection. Then a couple of months later, one of the L&S salesmen in Los Angeles came across a Stanley Orville Blois who worked for one of the electric companies. Stan (the "real" SOB as he likes to refer to himself) phoned me. We could find no connection but he told me if I wanted to learn more about the Blois family to contact a Margaret Powell in NS. I did and that is where my interest in genealogy started.

Since 1980 I have published 49 issues of The Blois Voice (a Blois family newsletter - now defunct), the Blois Voice Omnibus, a 5 vol history of The Blois-Smith Family, plus other books - two more on the Blois family, one on the Ralph Smith family, one on the Joshua Smith family and the present Supplement to the Ralph Smith family.

Now that we have moved to a Senior Estates Retirement Center, I plan to really retire, relax and enjoy life. I have done my duty by my ancestors. My books are placed in several genealogical libraries for use by future generations. I pass the torch to them to continue the work because family history is never ending.

This tells you a little something about myself and my family. It tells you very little actually since you know nothing of my philosophy of life, my attitudes towards people, politics, religion, and so forth. But that is another story that I may tell someday and has no particular bearing on genealogy. And, genealogy is what this book is all about.

Walph Blois

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

A work of this nature cannot be done without the help of many people. In addition to those mentioned in my original book, the following were helpful in providing information for this Supplement and I wish to acknowledge their support. If I have missed anyone, it was unintentional, and I apologize. There are many people I met who gave verbal information and whose names have slipped through my records - I apologize for this but assure you that your help is appreciated. In addition, I also wish to recognize the invaluable help of the authors of the books listed as source material elsewhere in this book.

THANK YOU to .....

Joseph P Barss, William E Colburn, Jean Culver, Pauline F Derick, Dorothy Ives, Mabel Elliott, Eileen Grodecki, Barbara Hilton, Dale A Ladd, Helen Mourton, Marya D Nill, David Parke, Janet Reid, Clyn Smith, Stanley Smith, Gloria Verge

And a SPECIAL thank you to my wife Nina without whose help this work would not have been done.

INDEX of NAMES

This is a computer generated index and contains the names of most persons listed in this book. We, obviously, have not been able to check every single name to ensure that everyone is listed. Some names may be missing - if you find one - we would appreciate your telling us.

The spelling may vary from index to list - if so, the list is to be considered the more correct. We say "more" correct because we do not know for absolute certainty that either one is correct. Spellings are as we found them. If you cannot find a name spelled as you would spell it - try a variation in spelling.

This index consists of twin columns showing first the surname followed by given names (a max. of two names) and the individual's number. Look up that number in the list and you will find data on that person. The listing will provide additional numbers for the parent and children of that person - see "How To Use The List" in the Introduction to this book.
