Introduction

PLEASE WRITE in this ROUGH DRAFT !!!!!!!

This 1 September 1996 Rough Draft is the 7.5 revision that will be presented to "The Association of the Descendants of Ralph Smith of Hingham and Eastham Massachusetts.

The 60th anniversary of the Association in 1996 will be held at Eastham, Mass.

A WARNING to the Smith historian, although everyone included in the Rough Draft is thought to be a descendant of Ralph Smith, time and corrections will reveal mistakes and omissions of a genealogical nature. Some of these Smith genealogies are weak, lacking in documentation. It might and probably will be necessary to either question or drop some of the weakly identified individuals from the future Rough Draft of Ralph Smith.

There will be 6 copies of this 1 September 1996 Rough Draft (the 7th revision of the 1989 Rough Draft).

The Historian & Genealogist of the Ralph Smith Association, is Carol Ann Ferris, 9 Burley St. Danvers, Massachusetts, 01923. Carol Ann would like to have Ralph's descendants make application to join the Association, We would all like to have your company.

Other copies will circulate among knowledgeable genealogical societies who will recognize the present shortcomings of this Rough Draft. I hope the Draft will be marked up with corrections, citations, and suggestions by those who would like to see it improved.

The biggest changes in this 1996 Rough Draft is the growth in Nova Scotian and Eastham families 7th generations, and sketch 97A, 160, 164, 173A, 200, 289, 345.

A WORK BOOK ON 5 GENERATIONS OF DESCENT FROM RALPH SMITH 1610-1685 OF HINGHAM & EASTHAM MASS.

The first publications mentioning Ralph Smyth were: 1862 [A Genealogical Dictionary of the First Settlers of New England on the basis of Farmers Register] by James Savage Vol III. page 129, Ralph, Hingham, from Hingham, Co. Norf. came, it is said by Lincoln, 1633, and sat down at our Hingham 1635; prob went to Eastham, there had Deborah, b. 8 Mar 1654. and prob. other ch.

[N.E.H.& G.R. Vol. 26, April 1872 pg 190]. Ralph Smyth, of Hingham, Mass. The early settlers of present town of Hingham Mass were mostly from Hingham, County of Norfolk, Eng. and Cushing in his statement of those early settlers, mentions RALPH, as coming "from Old Hingham," in 1633, and against the name Cushing puts the Figure (1), clearly indicating that he came alone. His name first appears upon the Hingham records in 1637, when he drew a house lot on "Bachelor Street," now Main street. The Colony records call him "Ralph Smyth," and as late as Sept. 22, 1652 the probate records for Suffolk Co. say "Ralph Smyth," of Hingham (N.E.H.& G.R. Vol VIII p. 61.)

The New England Historical & Genealogical Society's "The Great Migration Study Project". It is producing brief genealogical studies of all those people known to have come to New England between 1620 and 1643. These studies survey all that is currently known about each immigrant and bring together in one place material which is now scattered among several reference works, some long out of date.

In the first three years, the Project focused on the years from 1620 to 1633, during which time only one tenth of the total immigrants of the Great Migration arrived. By beginning with this smaller group, it is possible to establish procedures and standards for the study of the much larger number of immigrants who arrived in the decade from 1634 to 1643.

The Project Director is Robert Charles Anderson, F.A.S.G., of Salt Lake City, Utah. He surveyed all known primary sources for the period of the Great Migration, entered those records into a single database, and from this database and other primary and secondary sources compile the genealogical studies.

The Ralph Smythe who came to Bare Cove in 1633 on the Elizabeth Bonadventure went to Charlestown, there he likely met the fiddler Thomas Hatch and his wife Grace ___ Lewis Hatch. Ralph returned to Hingham, in 1637 he lived on Bachelor street, married by 1639 had 6 children, went into a business that he later sold ___ Hobart, Ralph emigrated to Eastham prior 1654 where his 7th child was born. Ralph Smith of Eastham remarried Grace Hatch of Yarmouth

July 1992 [NEH&GR] essay by Roger Thompson "Social cohesion in early New England" mentions the Rev Robert Peck and Rev Peter Hobart of Hingham, Co. Norfolk England who migrated to Hingham, Mass. "It is a truism that 1630s migration to New England was a family enterprise" "people in the eastern counties migrated not just in families, but in coalitions of families. They called them companies. These companies were assembled in three ways. Some were the clients and neighbors of a gentle emigrant. Some were devoted followers of a Puritan preacher. Most however, were groups of relatives (often including servants), moving to the New World together or in series."

Clerical companies: "Matthew Wren, Bishop of Norwich, wrote that lecturers [preachers] abounded, especially in Suffolk. Not a market, or bowling green or an ordinary [inn] could stand without one"

"Hingham and Norwich had provided martyrs in the persecution of the Lollards, the 15th century proto-protestants, and many more East Anglian religious radicals". "The ministerial companies are numerous  and Robert Peck's of 1638".

"By far the largest company to follow church leaders came from Hingham, Norfolk. Following ministers Rev. Robert Peck and Rev Peter Hobart, 143 people emigrated from the parish of St. Andrew between 1633 and 1640; a further sixty two left neighboring towns and villages. Peck had a long record of non-conformity. A man of presbyterian leanings, like his younger Hingham-born colleague, "the old fox," as he was known to the bishops officials, had been convicted as far back as 1615 of teaching the Puritan scruples . In 1622 he and twenty-two saints were charged with conventicling. Like Cotton at Boston, Lincolnshire, he appears to have been acknowledging a church of the elect within the wider St. Andrews congregation.  The last straw for the church authorities was Hingham's response to the Laudian injunction that proper alters at the east end should replace the central communion tables. To Puritans this smacked of the return of the Papist Mass. In St. Andrews an alter was obediently placed at the east end, in a specially dug pit".

"Even after his suspension in 1636, Peck continued to hold secret services for the elect.  Only the threat of summons before the draconian Court of High Commission in London, drove the elderly minister and his devoted followers into exile in 1638. Some fellow villagers had already moved to New England ". "The exodus from Hingham of about a third of the town must have left the place feeling semi-deserted". "The Hinghamites supporting Robert Peck were widely intermarried".

We know nothing of Ralph other than the Elizabeth Bonadventure departed England in 1633 for Bare Cove (Hingham). Most of the passengers were supposed to have come from Hingham Norfolk England. Cushing says Ralph came in 1633. He allegedly went to Charlestown, and left for Bare Cove, where he is first on record in 1637 drawing a house lot on Bachekor Street.

Presently Ralph's English background is a mystery, what would be fair to talk about is what a man born circa 1610 would be aware of, what would be common knowledge for a 23 year old man.

From the 1961 fourth edition of [A history of England and the Empire-Commonwealth] by Walter Phelps Hall.

As we know our parents world, Ralph's parents grew up in the reign of Elizabeth I 1558-1603, the younger daughter of Henry the VIII. His parents would have talked of "The Glorious Age", the sea dogs Hawkins, Drake, the Virginia colonizer Sir Walter Raleigh, the defeat of the Spanish Armada in 1588, and the breaking of Spanish sea power in 1591, which opened the Oceans to the English, Dutch and French. Lord Mountjoy who broke the Irish Revolt in 1601. William Shakespeare who died in 1616, his work was well known to the common people of London. Author Christopher Marlowe, Poet Edmund Spenser and scientist, philosopher Francis Bacon set the intellectual level of the times.

James the first 1603-1629, was a Stuart, a Scot replacing the Tudor reign. The Elizabethan times were replaced by unrest, Guy Fawkes in 1605 was arrested in the gunpowder plot. He was found under the House of Lords with the gun power, The intention was to blow up the King and Parliament. The penal code was stiffened against Catholics. now more in disfavor than ever.

" Puritan" described left-wing Protestants within the Church of England who demanded simpler church rites and a more Calvinistic theology. The early Puritans grew steadily more radical became known as "forward" or "advanced" Puritans, regarded bishops with dislike, and as a whole, generally favored a Presbyterian form of church government, Some of them became "Separatists," desiring to break with the Church of England. Of the latter a few called Brownists, set up independent meetings of their own and adopted a Congregationalist form of government, which made the individual congregation an independent unit and even did without the presbyteries. (The presbytery familiar in Presbyterian Scotland was a body composed of both clergy and laymen, governing a certain number of congregations-the Calvinist substitute for the bishop and his diocese.) The Elizabethan Act of Uniformity had kept these extremists either quiet or in hiding. Upon James's accession they proceeded immediately to present the monarch with the "Millinery Petition," named for its supposed signatures of one thousand clergymen, but actually signed by only eight hundred.

The mild petition enraged the King in Hampton Court in 1604, he threatened to harry out of the land all who did not conform to the Established Church. No good came out of the conference except the King James version of the Holy Scriptures, which for more than three hundred years was the standard translation of the Bible into the English language. From now on the Puritans, in many instances wealthy and influential, were to be counted as foes of the king. James I never mastered the significance of the position of Parliament in England. Two months after rebuffing the Puritans at Hampton Court, he again came face to face with Puritans in large numbers when he met his first House of Commons. That first session of 1604 heard the opening guns of the eighty-four-year fight between Stuart kings and their Parliament.

The ship Elizabeth Bonadventure, John Graves, Master sailed from Yarmouth , County of Norfolk, England, the first week in May and arrived in Boston Harbor, the 15th of June, 1633. The ship brought 95 passengers. Among them were Edmond Hobart Sr, and his family, as well as Ralph Smith, [Planters of the Commonwealth] by Charles E. Banks, Samuel Lincoln in his history of Hingham, Massachusetts, states that the following men were there in September, 1633 and began building huts and clearing land for planting the following spring. The first name recorded is Ralph Smith; then Nicholas Jacobs and his family, Thomas Lincoln, a weaver; Edmond Hobart; his brother, a farmer from Windham, England, who brought his wife and two children. The above five men were the founders of Hingham, Mass which was named after Hingham England. Quoted from [Pearly Watts Smith], 1967.

[Plymouth Colony records, Court orders, Vol III 1651-61 p 213: 7 May 1661] Ralph Smith for lying in and about the neglect of his duty, about a warrant directed to him and concerning the seeing or not seeing a whale, and other disorderly carriages tending to disturbance in the towne of Eastham, was fined twenty shillings."

Ralph Smith's four sons, Samuel, John, Daniel and Thomas are identified by births, marriages, children and wills.

Ralph Smith's two daughters Elizabeth and Deborah did not leave a paper trail to say who or if they married. A claim of marriage exists for each of them, Elizabeth's of some substance, Deborah's proven erroneous.

The current handling of the Elizabeth Smith alleged marriage to Jabez Snow is by John D. Austin 1992 in Mayflower Families through five generations V. 6, Stephen Hopkins, published by the General Society of Mayflower Descendants, Sketch #11.

"It has been suggested that Elizabeth was the dau. of that name b. at Hingham in Sep of 1648 to Ralph Smith." John D. Austin identified the 9 children born to Jabez Snow and Elizabeth.

The argument to be made for Elizabeth Smith marrying Jabez Snow is that they are both in Eastham, she born 1648, he born ca. 1642. A 1669 marriage would have him 27 and her 21. Four of the Snow children have names that could be from the Ralph Smith family. Grace Snow could have been named for Elizabeth's step mother Grace Hatch Smith, Thomas and Deborah Snow could have been named for Elizabeth Smith's two younger siblings (by 1 and 4 years) whom she, the oldest sister, would have cared for, Thomas Smith and Deborah Smith.

In 1897 April NEH&GR pg 206 Mrs Charles L Alden of Troy NY was doing a continuation of the "Snow Genealogy" she identified #37 Jabez Snow son of Jabez Snow to say his mother was (Elizabeth Smyth*) (*Since sending the family of Jabez Snow2 to REGISTER I have discovered that his wife was Eliz. Smyth, daughter of 1st Ralph, born Sept 1648).

Unfortunately she did not reveal what she discovered. If Mrs Alden's papers are in existence they might shed more light on Elizabeth.

Algernon A. Aspinwall in April 1916 NGSQ Vol V p 7 #18 said Jabez Snow married Elizabeth Smith in "Grandchildren of the Mayflower) He cited no source.

Incorrect; Deborah Smith married John Hurd II (From Pilgrims and Indians to Kings and indentured servants an ancestry of the Brothers by Vernon Nickerson 1970 pp 63, 211).

Corrected; Deborah (Kendrick) Yeates married John Hurd II (1978 Edward W. Hanson in NEH&GR pp 85-6, "The Hurds of Boston")

Bethia died ___ prob. Chatham, (after 31 Jul 1734 Settlement).

Administration of the estate of John Smith, late of Chatham, was granted to his son Samuel Smith of Chatham on 25 Feb 1717/18. Guardians were appointed for John's minor children on 11 Jul 1722, as follows: William Nickerson of Chatham for Bethiah Smith, aged about 14; Samuel Smith of Chatham, yeoman, for Seth Smith, aged about nine; Dean Smith of Chatham, yeoman, for David Smith, aged about eleven; Richard Knowles of Chatham for John Smith, aged about 19; Samuel Steward of Chatham, yeoman, for Mary Smith, aged about 20; and Thomas Atkins of Chatham, yeoman, for Stephen Smith, aged about 16.

Completion of the settlement of the estate on 31 Jul 1734 disclosed that John Smith was survived by six sons; Samuel (the eldest), Dean, John, Stephen, David and Seth; and three daughters; Mercy, Mary and Bethiah. Dean had since died, leaving four children; Sons Dean, Heman and Aseph, and daughter Meriam. Widow Bethiah was then alive.

SMITH children born Eastham or unrecorded Chatham, named guardians, in settlement of father's estate.

Again from 1938 Tenney Smith p 25-26. The will of John Smith, folio 6, page 250, in the files of the Probate Court, in Barnstable, Mass., gives the following facts:

"I bequeath to my son, Joseph Smith, my land on the southernly side of the Ceder swamp, in Little Scattett and my renement lot in Rock Harbor Neck. All my land at the Harbor's mouth neck. Also my carpenter tools. He is to maintain my daughter Hannah Smith, in sickness and health, during her natural life.

He shall supply my loving wife, Bethia Smith, during her natural life or as long as she remains my widow with wheat, hay, wood, corn and other necessities. I appoint my son, Joseph Smith, to be the Executor of my estate.

I bequeath to my son, William Smith, the land that I have heretofore possessed him of and 20 shillings.

I bequeath to my son, Seth Smith, the one half of the upland of my homestead. (He then describes several parcels of land in detail that is to be given to Seth, and continues) A lot of meadow land that lies between the meadow land of Thomas Paine and that of Jonothan Sparrow, that I had from my grandfather, Williams.

He shall maintain my daughter, Hannah Smith, in sickness and health during her natural life. He shall supply my loving wife, Bethia Smith, during her natural life or as long as she remains my widow with wheat, hay, wood, corn and other necessities.

I bequeath to my son John Smith, all and singular my dwelling house, wherein I do dwell, but reserve the west room and buttery for the use of my loving wife, Bethia Smith, during her natural life or as long as she remains my widow, with wheat, hay, wood, corn and other necessities."

11. SARAH SMITH (John² Ralph¹) born 27 Mar 1671/2 Eastham (MD 4:33) to John Smith and Hannah Williams, Sarah died ___ at __, (before Dec 1715, Bowman file) Sarah married 15 Dec 1690 Eastham (MD 6:201) JOSEPH SNOW born 24 Nov 1671 Eastham (MD 3:230) to Joseph Snow and Mary __. Joseph died 21 Jan 1705/6 Eastham (MD 6:201). Joseph's inventory taken 4 Feb 1705/6, administered May 1706 (Bowman file)

SARAH (SMITH) SNOW's second marriage 5 Aug 1708 Eastham (MD 4:30) to DANIEL HAMILTON, (who was widowed from her cousin #7 MARY SMITH).

Joseph Snow Jr. appears on the 1695 list of Eastham inhabitants. He signed a receipt 26 Oct 1696 in the estate of his wife's grandfather Thomas Williams of Eastham, who remembered in his will of 10 May 1692 the children of his dau. Hannah Mulford. Hannah (Williams) Smith, mother of Joseph's wife Sarah, m. (2) after 8 Mar 1678/9 Thomas Mulford.

Son Joseph Snow was not mentioned in the 1717 will of his father, but grandsons Nathaniel and Joseph Snow were remembered, certainly because their father was then dead. In a gift of realty, grandson Joseph was devised twice as much as Nathaniel, indicating he was the elder.

Inventory of the estate of Joseph Snow Jr. of Eastham was taken 4 Feb 1705/6, and administration was granted to widow Sarah in May of 1706.

12. HANNAH SMITH (John² Ralph¹) was there such a person? born ___ ___ at ___ to John Smith and Hannah Williams, Hannah died ___ ___ at ___, Hannah married ___ ___ at ___, RICHARD COOK born 1 Sep 1672 (MD 8:88) to Josiah Cook and Deborah Hopkins, Richard died ___ ___ at ___, Hannah's existence is solely based on The American Genealogist 1964 p 193-198. The will of her alleged mother Hannah Williams Smith Mulford names Richard Col, the husband of a Hannah, the administrator of Hannah Mulford's will.

This claim of a Smith line will be controversial until more information comes to the fore. I think it is possible and at this time am tentatively counting her a Smith. This opinion does not allow the family to develop beyond this generation. John D. Austin in a 1992 Stephen Hopkins, Mayflower families through 5 generations V. 6 p 111-2 #85 acknowledges the same source and says "Hannah ? Smith: prob dau of John and Hannah (Williams) Smith of Eastham".

WILLIAMS' marriage intentions 29 Sep 1728 Eastham (MD 28:117)
Williams married second 3 Oct 1728 Eastham (MD 15:227) DEBORA WALKER born ___ ___ at ___ to ___ Walker and ___ ___, Deborah died ___ ___ at ___.

These documented events of Williams Smith's birth, two marriages, and four children corrects an error in Tenney Smith's 1938 "Charles Smith and Rachel Amy Bryant Their Ancestors and Descendants".

On page 25 Tenney identified a William Smith born Sept. 8, 1703 Eastham, Mass as the son of John Smith and Sarah Collins, Tenney quotes from William's alleged father's will "I bequeath to my son, William Smith the land that I have heretofore possessed him of and 20 shillings" Tenney continues on page 26 and 27 to develop the character "William Smith". This other William Smith unfortunately starts without documentation, his parentage unknown. This other William does marry Kezia Vose of Milton Mass, their first child William Smith was baptized Dec 16 1733 Milton to be followed by three more children.

Tenney Smith's 1938 error was to think that the "s" at the end of Williams name was a typographical mistake. When Tenney printed the will of the grandfather Thomas Williams on page 330-1, he showed the great affection that Thomas had for his daughter's (Hannah Williams Smith Mulford) son John Smith. The will shows John to be the apple of his grandfathers eye; the grandchild was left everything the grandfather possessed. When the grandchild John had his family, he named one son "Williams Smith" in memory of his benefactor. John Smith did not have a son named "William".

These two real people Williams and William are from different families, in different geographic areas, living their independent lives. William who married Kezia Vose is the head of his branch of a Smith family. Tenney Smith researched his book more than 50 years ago. For anyone interested, it is time to restart the search for the origins of William Smith.

Tenney's 1938 book starts a new SMITH family on pg 240 #36, and continues it through #52 on p 244, #56,57 on p 245, and #58 on p 245-249 #72. All of these folks have William as the head of a family.

Another secondary source to be corrected is (1958 Report of the Association of Descendants of Ralph Smith of Hingham and Eastham Mass Inc) p 14. The William Smith who married Kezia Vose is again misidentified as a descendant of Ralph Smith.

Ohio)

{Caleb Trowbridge born about 1745 in New Fairfield, Conn; died ___ 18__ in Ohio?; married ___ 1769 in New Fairfield? Bethia Russica (identified by descendants, but no further facts about her were found. The name was originally thought to be Ressequie, but the printed genealogy of that family does not contain her name.) He was probably a farmer in New Fairfield until about 1789 when he witnessed a deed of his brother Keeler Trowbridge in Williamstown, Mass. Caleb enlisted 7 Sep 1777 in Capt William Douglas's Company, Col. Benjamin Symonds' Regiment, discharged 30 Sep 1777. emigrated to the future Tompkins Co, NY. to Ulysses, Trumansburgh Village. Late in life he might have removed to Ohio.}

[It is this compiler's opinion that Bethia Russica was actually ELIZABETH YOUNG who was called by her mother's and sisters' first name. I further believe that the * names are from her father Elisha, brother Heman, twin Watson, and her birth name Elizabeth]
